The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“In stillness we learn to remain with the energy that arises from contact we have made with our own spiritual nature.” (John Main)

God of Creation, we leave here today, our work done for the week and now a week of rest. Lord may we find time to re-energize our bodies and relax with loved ones. May it restore our minds and souls so we find a stillness that permits us to discover and know You better and learn about ourselves while nurtured by Your word and grace. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.
