

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

SENATE BILL NO. 249

97TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR NASHEED.

Read 1st time January 31, 2013, and ordered printed.

TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal section 167.031, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to school attendance.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 167.031, RSMo, is repealed and one new section
2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 167.031, to read as follows:

167.031. 1. Every parent, guardian or other person in this state having 2 charge, control or custody of a child not enrolled in a public, private, parochial,
3 parish school or full-time equivalent attendance in a combination of such schools 4 and between the ages of seven years and the compulsory attendance age for the 5 district is responsible for enrolling the child in a program of academic instruction
6 which complies with subsection 2 of this section. Any parent, guardian or other 7 person who enrolls a child between the ages of five and seven years in a public 8 school program of academic instruction shall cause such child to attend the 9 academic program on a regular basis, according to this section except as 10 provided in subsection 8 of this section. Nonattendance by such child shall 11 cause such parent, guardian or other responsible person to be in violation of the 12 provisions of section 167.061, except as provided by this section. A parent, 13 guardian or other person in this state having charge, control, or custody of a child 14 between the ages of seven years of age and the compulsory attendance age for the 15 district shall cause the child to attend regularly some public, private, parochial, 16 parish, home school or a combination of such schools not less than the entire 17 school term of the school which the child attends; except that:

18 (1) A child who, to the satisfaction of the superintendent of public schools
19 of the district in which he resides, or if there is no superintendent then the chief

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

20 school officer, is determined to be mentally or physically incapacitated may be 21 excused from attendance at school for the full time required, or any part thereof;

22 (2) A child between fourteen years of age and the compulsory attendance
23 age for the district may be excused from attendance at school for the full time 24 required, or any part thereof, by the superintendent of public schools of the 25 district, or if there is none then by a court of competent jurisdiction, when legal 26 employment has been obtained by the child and found to be desirable, and after 27 the parents or guardian of the child have been advised of the pending action; or

28 (3) A child between five and seven years of age shall be excused from 29 attendance at school if a parent, guardian or other person having charge, control 30 or custody of the child makes a written request that the child be dropped from the 31 school's rolls.

32 2. (1) As used in sections 167.031 to 167.071, a "home school" is a school, 33 whether incorporated or unincorporated, that:

34 (a) Has as its primary purpose the provision of private or religious-based 35 instruction;

36 (b) Enrolls pupils between the ages of seven years and the compulsory 37 attendance age for the district, of which no more than four are unrelated by 38 affinity or consanguinity in the third degree; and

39 (c) Does not charge or receive consideration in the form of tuition, fees, or 40 other remuneration in a genuine and fair exchange for provision of instruction.

41 (2) As evidence that a child is receiving regular instruction, the parent 42 shall, except as otherwise provided in this subsection:

43 (a) Maintain the following records:

44 a. A plan book, diary, or other written record indicating subjects taught 45 and activities engaged in; and

46 b. A portfolio of samples of the child's academic work; and

47 c. A record of evaluations of the child's academic progress; or 48 d. Other written, or credible evidence equivalent to subparagraphs a., b.

49 and c.; and

50 (b) Offer at least one thousand hours of instruction, at least six hundred 51 hours of which will be in reading, language arts, mathematics, social studies and 52 science or academic courses that are related to the aforementioned subject areas
53 and consonant with the pupil's age and ability. At least four hundred of the six 54 hundred hours shall occur at the regular home school location.

55 (3) The requirements of subdivision (2) of this subsection shall not apply

56 to any pupil above the age of sixteen years.

57 3. Nothing in this section shall require a private, parochial, parish or 58 home school to include in its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice in conflict 59 with the school's religious doctrines or to exclude from its curriculum any concept, 60 topic, or practice consistent with the school's religious doctrines. Any other 61 provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, all departments or agencies
62 of the state of Missouri shall be prohibited from dictating through rule, regulation
63 or other device any statewide curriculum for private, parochial, parish or home 64 schools.

65 4. A school year begins on the first day of July and ends on the thirtieth
66 day of June following.

67 5. The production by a parent of a daily log showing that a home school 68 has a course of instruction which satisfies the requirements of this section or, in 69 the case of a pupil over the age of sixteen years who attended a metropolitan 70 school district the previous year, a written statement that the pupil is attending 71 home school in compliance with this section shall be a defense to any prosecution 72 under this section and to any charge or action for educational neglect brought 73 pursuant to chapter 210.

74 6. As used in sections 167.031 to 167.051, the term "compulsory 75 attendance age for the district" shall mean:

76 (1) Seventeen years of age for any metropolitan school district for which 77 the school board adopts a resolution to establish such compulsory attendance age;
78 provided that such resolution shall take effect no earlier than the school year 79 next following the school year during which the resolution is adopted; and

80 (2) Seventeen years of age or having successfully completed sixteen credits 81 towards high school graduation in all other cases.

82 The school board of a metropolitan school district for which the compulsory 83 attendance age is seventeen years may adopt a resolution to lower the compulsory 84 attendance age to sixteen years; provided that such resolution shall take effect 85 no earlier than the school year next following the school year during which the 86 resolution is adopted.

87 7. For purposes of subsection 2 of this section as applied in subsection 6
88 [herein] of this section, a "completed credit towards high school graduation"
89 shall be defined as one hundred hours or more of instruction in a course. Home 90 school education enforcement and records pursuant to this section, and sections 91 210.167 and 211.031, shall be subject to review only by the local prosecuting

92 attorney.

93 8. Notwithstanding subsection 1 of this section, beginning in the 94 2014-2015 school year, in a metropolitan school district or an urban 95 school district containing most or all of a home rule city with more 96 than four hundred thousand inhabitants and located in more than one
97 county, every parent, guardian, or other person having charge, control,
98 or custody of a child who chooses to enroll the child in a public, 99 private, parochial, parish school, or full-time equivalent attendance in 100 a combination of such schools shall enroll such child by the age of five 101 in accordance with the provisions of sections 160.053, 160.054, and 102 160.055. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any parent, 103 guardian, or other person having charge, control, or custody of a child
104 and intending to enroll the child in a program of academic instruction 105 that complies with subsection 2 of this section.
