RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1638

Whereas, the members of the Missouri Senate feel it is altogether right and proper to pause from time to time to recognize world leaders who have made immeasurable contributions to the well being of mankind and whose legacies will echo down through the ages; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize the late Dr. Norman Borlaug, who was born one hundred years ago, on March 25, 1914, in Cresco, Iowa, and who would prove to be a seminal figure in the war on hunger and in the green revolution; and

Whereas, Dr. Borlaug is revered as one of America's and the world's greatest agricultural scientists, responsible for saving hundreds of millions of people from famine, starvation, and death; and

Whereas, Dr. Borlaug received his bachelor of science in biology and Ph.D. in plant pathology and genetics from the University of Minnesota, then took up an agricultural research position in Mexico, where he developed semi-dwarf, high-yield, disease-resistant wheat varieties, known as "miracle wheat", which quickly made its way to India and Pakistan and other countries in Asia and the Middle East as they faced imminent, massive food shortages; and

Whereas, the 1970 recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize, Dr. Borlaug was granted the United States Presidential Medal of Freedom and the Congressional Gold Medal, this country's two highest civilian honors, for his prodigious accomplishments in fighting hunger; and

Whereas, a Fellow of the Royal Society, Dr. Borlaug is also the deserving recipient of the Public Welfare Medal from the United States National Academy of Sciences "in recognition of distinguished contributions in the application of science to the public welfare", the most prestigious honor conferred by the Academy; the National Medal of Science, an honor bestowed by the President of the United States to individuals in science and engineering who have made important contributions to the advancement of knowledge in the fields of behavioral and social sciences, biology, chemistry, engineering, mathematics, and physics; and the Padma Vibhushan, the second highest civilian award in the Republic of India; and

Whereas, State Agriculture and Rural Leaders honors Dr. Borlaug's memory, and as a tribute to him, encourages everyone to join in the effort to eradicate hunger:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-seventh General Assembly, join the State Agriculture and Rural Leaders, an organization of agriculture and rural leaders of state and provincial legislative bodies from the United States and Canada, in encouraging all Missourians to engage in appropriate events, programs, and activities on March 25, 2014, "National Agriculture Day", in remembrance of Dr. Borlaug; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution to the State Agriculture and Rural Leaders on the illustrious occasion of "National Agriculture Day", March 25, 2014.

Senator Pearce offered Senate Resolution No. 1639, regarding Dr. Mary McCord, Warrensburg, which was adopted.
