

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

FORTY-FOURTH DAY—WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1, 2015

---

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Kinder in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord!” (Psalm 27:14)

We wait for Your presence and help, O Lord. Especially, we call upon You when the days are to full and sleep is difficult to come by. We seek a quiet place to find You, O God. Give us strength to endure the work ahead of us, courage to tackle the most troubling problems and peace of mind that helps us deal with all we confront each day. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

Senator Richard requested unanimous consent of the Senate to correct the Senate Journal for Tuesday, March 31, 2015, which request was granted.

The following correction was made to the Journal for Tuesday, March 31, 2015, page 670, line 16, by inserting after said line the following:

SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NOS. 21, 19 & 23

Relating to an application to Congress for the calling of an Article V convention of states to propose certain amendments to the United States Constitution which place limits on the federal government.

Whereas, the Founders of our Constitution empowered state legislators to be guardians of liberty against future abuses of power by the federal government; and

Whereas, the federal government has created a crushing national debt through improper and imprudent spending; and

Whereas, the federal government has invaded the legitimate roles of the states through the manipulative process of federal mandates, most of which are unfunded to a great extent; and

Whereas, the federal government has ceased to live under a proper interpretation of the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, it is the solemn duty of the states to protect the liberty of our people - particularly for the generations to come - to propose amendments to the United States Constitution through a convention of states under Article V to place clear restraints on these and related abuses of power:

Now Therefore Be It Resolved that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-eighth General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby apply to Congress, under the provisions of Article V of the United States Constitution, for the calling of a convention of the states limited to proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that impose fiscal restraints on the federal government, limit the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and limit the terms of office for its officials and members of Congress; and

Be It Further Resolved that this application constitutes a continuing application in accordance with Article V of the United States Constitution until the legislatures of at least two-thirds of the several states have made applications on the same subject; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation, and the presiding officers of each of the legislative houses in the several states requesting their cooperation.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved as corrected.

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 1

Amend Senate Substitute for House Bill No. 384, Page 7, Section 32.385, Line 26 of said page, by inserting immediately after said line the following:

“37.650. 1. There is hereby established within the office of administration the “Office of Taxpayer Advocate”, for the purpose of providing independent assistance to taxpayers. The taxpayer advocate shall report directly to the commissioner of the office of administration.

2. The office shall be administered by the taxpayer advocate, who shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The taxpayer advocate shall hold office for a term of six years and shall continue to hold office until a successor has been duly appointed. The advocate shall act independently of the department of revenue in the performance of his or her duties. The office of administration shall provide administrative support and staff as deemed necessary.

3. The office shall have the authority:

- (1) To communicate with any taxpayer regarding any tax issues that the taxpayer is experiencing;
- (2) To communicate with any employees of the department of revenue regarding a taxpayer's tax issues; and
- (3) To have access to any records held by any department or agency regarding a taxpayer's tax issues.

4. For any information obtained from a state agency or entity under this section, the office of taxpayer advocate shall be subject to the same disclosure restrictions and confidentiality requirements that apply to the state agency or entity providing such information to the office of taxpayer advocate. For information obtained directly by the office of taxpayer advocate under this section, the office of taxpayer advocate shall be subject to the same disclosure restrictions and confidentiality requirements that apply to the department of revenue.

5. The office shall annually submit to the governor and the general assembly a detailed report on the work of the office of the taxpayer advocate. Such report shall include, but not be limited to, the number of taxpayer cases handled by the office and the disposition of such cases. The report shall also include any recommendation for changes in tax laws or the operation of the department of revenue. The report filed by the office shall not be subject to review by any executive branch official.”; and

Further amend said bill, page 8, section 136.375, line 1, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“136.380. [1. The director of revenue shall establish or designate within the department of revenue the “Office of Taxpayers’ Ombudsman”. Such office shall be available to answer taxpayer questions and help solve taxpayer grievances. The telephone number, facsimile number and address of the taxpayers’ ombudsman shall be disseminated to the general public as required in subsection 2 of section 136.355. Such office shall be created from existing personnel or can be staffed from appropriations made for such purpose.

2.] Any employee of the department of revenue which communicates with an individual taxpayer either in writing or by telephone shall provide the taxpayer with an identifying number associated with the employee. The director may develop the identifying procedure by policy.”; and

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Kraus moved that the above amendment be adopted, which motion prevailed.
