JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri, an amendment to article I of the Constitution of Missouri, by adding thereto one new section relating to parental rights.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on 2 Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2016, or at a special 3 election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted 4 to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following 5 amendment to article I of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Article I, Constitution of Missouri, is amended by adding 2 thereto one new section, to be known as section 36, to read as follows:

Section 36. 1. That parents have a responsibility to ensure that 2 their minor children receive a program of academic instruction which 3 they regularly attend while the child is of an age prescribed by law for 4 school attendance. Parents have a fundamental right to choose to 5 educate their children in public schools, private schools, parochial 6 schools, parish schools, or in-home education, or a combination thereof, 7 to prepare them for future obligations in life.

8 2. Neither the state nor any political subdivision, nor any 9 agency, entity, or person acting on behalf of the state or any political 10 subdivision, shall dictate through statute, rule, regulation, or other 11 device the content of curriculum to be used by private schools,
12 parochial schools, parish schools, or for in-home instruction or a 13 combination thereof, with the exception of laws which may require 14 instruction in the United States Constitution and this 15 constitution. Neither the state nor any political subdivision, nor any

16 agency, entity, or person acting on behalf of the state or any political 17 subdivision shall require any private, parochial, or parish school to 18 include in its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice in conflict with 19 the school's religious doctrines or beliefs, nor to exclude from its 20 curriculum any concept, topic, or practice consistent with the school's 21 religious doctrines or beliefs; nor shall the state or any political 22 subdivision, or any agency, entity, or person acting on behalf of the 23 state or any political subdivision require a parent providing in-home 24 education to include in a student's curriculum any concept, topic, or 25 practice in conflict with the parent's religious beliefs, nor to exclude 26 from a student's curriculum any concept, topic, or practice consistent 27 with the parent's religious beliefs.

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, RSMo, and other applicable
2 constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to 3 adopt ballot language for the submission of a joint resolution to the voters of this 4 state, the official ballot title of the amendment proposed in section A shall be as 5 follows:

6 "Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to ensure that parents have 7 a fundamental right to choose to educate their children in public schools, private 8 schools, parochial schools, or in-home education, or a combination thereof?".
