7 syndrome, eosinophilic disorders, and impaired absorption of nutrients 8 caused by disorders affecting the absorptive surface, functional length,

10       2. The department may promulgate rules and regulations to 11 implement the provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, 12 as that term is defined in section 536.010 that is created under the 13 authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it 14 complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, and, 15 if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are 16 nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly 17 pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to delay the effective date, or to 18 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, 19 then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or 20 adopted after August 28, 2015, shall be invalid and void.

210.118. 1. In any action under chapter 210 or 211 in which the 22 children's division. Upon receipt of the order the children's division 23 shall list the individual as a perpetrator of child abuse or neglect in the 24 central registry.

210.148. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of section 210.145 to 2 the contrary, upon the receipt of a report under section 210.145 where 3 the subject of the report is a juvenile with problem sexual behavior, the 4 division shall immediately communicate such report to the appropriate 5 local office along with any relevant information as may be contained in 6 the information system. Upon receipt of the report and relevant 7 information, the local office shall use a family assessment and services 8 approach, as described in subsection 14 of section 210.145 to respond 9 to the allegation contained in the report. For the purposes of family 10 assessments performed under this section, the alleged abuse does not 11 have to be committed by a person responsible for the care, custody, and 12 control of the child.

13 2. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the local office from 14 commencing an investigation if the local office, at any point in using 15 the family assessment and services approach, determines that an 16 investigation is required. Such investigation shall comply with the 17 provisions of section 210.145 and may include requesting assistance 18 from the appropriate law enforcement agency.

19 3. As used in this section, the term "juvenile with problem sexual 20 behavior" shall mean any person, under fourteen years of age, who has 21 allegedly committed sexual abuse against another child.

22 4. Within one hundred eighty days after August 28, 2015, the 23 division shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this 24 section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 25 536.010 that is created under the authority delegated in this section 26 shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of 27 the provisions of chapter 536, and, if applicable, section 536.028. This 28 section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers 29 vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, to review, to 30 delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 31 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking

32 authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2015, shall 33 be invalid and void.

211.031. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the juvenile 2 court or the family court in circuits that have a family court as provided in 3 sections 487.010 to 487.190 shall have exclusive original jurisdiction in 4 proceedings:

5 (1) Involving any child or person seventeen years of age who may be a 6 resident of or found within the county and who is alleged to be in need of care

9 support of the child or person seventeen years of age, neglect or refuse to provide 10 proper support, education which is required by law, medical, surgical or other 11 care necessary for his or her well-being; except that reliance by a parent, 12 guardian or custodian upon remedial treatment other than medical or surgical 13 treatment for a child or person seventeen years of age shall not be construed as 14 neglect when the treatment is recognized or permitted pursuant to the laws of 15 this state;

16 (b) The child or person seventeen years of age is otherwise without proper 17 care, custody or support; [or]

18 (c) The child or person seventeen years of age was living in a room,

21 (d) The child or person seventeen years of age is a child in need of mental 22 health services and the parent, guardian or custodian is unable to afford or access 23 appropriate mental health treatment or care for the child;

24 (2) Involving any child who may be a resident of or found within the 25 county and who is alleged to be in need of care and treatment because:

26 (a) The child while subject to compulsory school attendance is repeatedly 27 and without justification absent from school; or

28 (b) The child disobeys the reasonable and lawful directions of his or her 29 parents or other custodian and is beyond their control; or 30 (c) The child is habitually absent from his or her home without sufficient 31 cause, permission, or justification; or

32 (d) The behavior or associations of the child are otherwise injurious to his 33 or her welfare or to the welfare of others; or 34 (e) The child is charged with an offense not classified as criminal, or with 35 an offense applicable only to children; except that, the juvenile court shall not 36 have jurisdiction over any child fifteen years of age who is alleged to have 37 violated a state or municipal traffic ordinance or regulation, the violation of 38 which does not constitute a felony, or any child who is alleged to have violated a 39 state or municipal ordinance or regulation prohibiting possession or use of any 40 tobacco product;

41 (3) Involving any child who is alleged to have violated a state law or 42 municipal ordinance, or any person who is alleged to have violated a state law or 43 municipal ordinance prior to attaining the age of seventeen years, in which cases 44 jurisdiction may be taken by the court of the circuit in which the child or person 45 resides or may be found or in which the violation is alleged to have occurred; 46 except that, the juvenile court shall not have jurisdiction over any child fifteen 47 years of age who is alleged to have violated a state or municipal traffic ordinance 48 or regulation, the violation of which does not constitute a felony, and except that 49 the juvenile court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the municipal court over 50 any child who is alleged to have violated a municipal curfew ordinance, and 51 except that the juvenile court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit 52 court on any child who is alleged to have violated a state or municipal ordinance 53 or regulation prohibiting possession or use of any tobacco product;

54 (4) For the adoption of a person;

55 (5) For the commitment of a child or person seventeen years of age to the 56 guardianship of the department of social services as provided by law; [and]

57 (6) Involving an order of protection pursuant to chapter 455 when the 58 respondent is less than seventeen years of age; and

59 (7) Involving any youth under twenty-one years of age for whom 60 a petition to return the youth to children's division custody has been 61 filed under section 211.036.

62 2. Transfer of a matter, proceeding, jurisdiction or supervision for a child 63 or person seventeen years of age who resides in a county of this state shall be 64 made as follows:

65 (1) Prior to the filing of a petition and upon request of any party or at the 66 discretion of the juvenile officer, the matter in the interest of a child or person 67 seventeen years of age may be transferred by the juvenile officer, with the prior 68 consent of the juvenile officer of the receiving court, to the county of the child's 69 residence or the residence of the person seventeen years of age for future action;

70 (2) Upon the motion of any party or on its own motion prior to final

71 disposition on the pending matter, the court in which a proceeding is commenced 72 may transfer the proceeding of a child or person seventeen years of age to the 73 court located in the county of the child's residence or the residence of the person 74 seventeen years of age, or the county in which the offense pursuant to subdivision 75 (3) of subsection 1 of this section is alleged to have occurred for further action;

76 (3) Upon motion of any party or on its own motion, the court in which 77 jurisdiction has been taken pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may at any 78 time thereafter transfer jurisdiction of a child or person seventeen years of age 79 to the court located in the county of the child's residence or the residence of the 80 person seventeen years of age for further action with the prior consent of the 81 receiving court;

82 (4) Upon motion of any party or upon its own motion at any time following 83 a judgment of disposition or treatment pursuant to section 211.181, the court 84 having jurisdiction of the cause may place the child or person seventeen years of 85 age under the supervision of another juvenile court within or without the state 86 pursuant to section 210.570 with the consent of the receiving court;

87 (5) Upon motion of any child or person seventeen years of age or his or 88 her parent, the court having jurisdiction shall grant one change of judge pursuant 89 to Missouri supreme court rules;

90 (6) Upon the transfer of any matter, proceeding, jurisdiction or 91 supervision of a child or person seventeen years of age, certified copies of all legal 92 and social documents and records pertaining to the case on file with the clerk of 93 the transferring juvenile court shall accompany the transfer.

94 3. In any proceeding involving any child or person seventeen years of age 95 taken into custody in a county other than the county of the child's residence or 96 the residence of a person seventeen years of age, the juvenile court of the county 97 of the child's residence or the residence of a person seventeen years of age shall 98 be notified of such taking into custody within seventy-two hours.

99 4. When an investigation by a juvenile officer pursuant to this section 100 reveals that the only basis for action involves an alleged violation of section 101 167.031 involving a child who alleges to be home schooled, the juvenile officer 102 shall contact a parent or parents of such child to verify that the child is being 103 home schooled and not in violation of section 167.031 before making a report of 104 such a violation. Any report of a violation of section 167.031 made by a juvenile 105 officer regarding a child who is being home schooled shall be made to the 106 prosecuting attorney of the county where the child legally resides.

107           5. The disability or disease of a parent shall not constitute a basis for a 108 determination that a child is a child in need of care or for the removal of custody 109 of a child from the parent without a specific showing that there is a causal 110 relation between the disability or disease and harm to the child.

211.036. 1. If a youth under the age of twenty-one is released from the 2 custody of the children's division and after such release it appears that it would 3 be in such youth's best interest to have his or her custody returned to the 4 children's division, the juvenile officer, the children's division or the youth may 5 petition the court to return custody of such youth to the division until the youth 6 is twenty-one years of age. The petition shall be filed in the court that 7 previously exercised authority over the youth under section 211.031. If 8 such petition is not heard within six months of the filing date, the 9 petition may be filed in the court where the youth resides or in the 10 court of an adjacent county. In deciding if it is in the best interests of 11 the youth to be returned to the custody of the division under this 12 section, the court shall consider the following factors:

13           (1) The circumstances of the youth;

14           (2) Whether the children's division has services or programs in 15 place that will benefit the youth and assist the youth in transitioning 16 to self-sufficiency; and

17           (3) Whether the youth has the commitment to fully cooperate 18 with the division in developing and implementing a case plan.
19 The court shall not return a youth to the custody of the division who 20 has been committed to the custody of another agency; who is under a 21 legal guardianship; or who has pled guilty or who has been found guilty 22 of a felony criminal offense.

23           2. The youth shall cooperate with the case plan developed for the 24 youth by the children's division in consultation with the youth.

25           3. For purposes of this section, a "youth" is any person eighteen 26 years of age or older and under twenty-one years of age who was in the 27 custody of the children's division in foster care at any time in the two- 28 year period preceding the youth's eighteenth birthday.

29           4. The court may, upon motion of the children's division or the 30 youth, terminate care and supervision before the youth's twenty-first 31 birthday if the division does not have services available for the youth 32 or if the youth declines to cooperate with the case plan.

16 involving more than one incident that alarms or causes distress to an adult or 18 would cause a reasonable adult or child to suffer substantial emotional distress 19 and must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the petitioner or 20 child. Such conduct might include, but is not limited to:

65 is reasonable in that person's situation to have been alarmed by the conduct. As 66 used in this subdivision:

67 (a) "Alarm" means to cause fear of danger of physical harm;

68 (b) "Course of conduct" means a pattern of conduct composed of repeated 69 acts over a period of time, however short, that serves no legitimate purpose. Such 70 conduct may include, but is not limited to, following the other person or unwanted 71 communication or unwanted contact[; and 72 (c) "Repeated" means two or more incidents evidencing a continuity of 73 purpose].

455.020. 1. Any person who has been subject to domestic violence by a 2 present or former family or household member, or who has been the victim of 3 stalking or sexual assault, may seek relief under sections 455.010 to 455.085 4 by filing a verified petition alleging such domestic violence [or], stalking, or 5 sexual assault by the respondent.

6 2. A person's right to relief under sections 455.010 to 455.085 shall not be 7 affected by the person leaving the residence or household to avoid domestic 8 violence.

9 3. Any protection order issued pursuant to sections 455.010 to 455.085
10 shall be effective throughout the state in all cities and counties.

455.032. In addition to any other jurisdictional grounds provided by law, 2 a court shall have jurisdiction to enter an order of protection restraining or 3 enjoining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit domestic 4 violence, stalking, sexual assault, molesting or disturbing the peace of 5 petitioner, pursuant to sections 455.010 to 455.085, if the petitioner is present, 6 whether permanently or on a temporary basis within the state of Missouri and 7 if the respondent's actions constituting domestic violence have occurred, have 8 been attempted or have been or are threatened within the state of Missouri. For 9 purposes of this section, if the petitioner has been the subject of domestic violence 10 within or outside of the state of Missouri, such evidence shall be admissible to 11 demonstrate the need for protection in Missouri.

455.040. 1. Not later than fifteen days after the filing of a petition that 2 meets the requirements of section 455.020, a hearing shall be held unless the 3 court deems, for good cause shown, that a continuance should be granted. At the 4 hearing, if the petitioner has proved the allegation of domestic violence [or], 5 stalking, or sexual assault by a preponderance of the evidence, and the 6 respondent cannot show that his or her actions alleged to constitute abuse were 7 otherwise justified under the law, the court shall issue a full order of protection 8 for a period of time the court deems appropriate, except that the protective order 9 shall be valid for at least one hundred eighty days and not more than one 10 year. Upon motion by the petitioner, and after a hearing by the court, the full 11 order of protection may be renewed for a period of time the court deems 12 appropriate, except that the protective order shall be valid for at least one 13 hundred eighty days and not more than one year from the expiration date of the 14 originally issued full order of protection. The court may, upon finding that it is 15 in the best interest of the parties, include a provision that any full order of 16 protection for one year shall automatically renew unless the respondent requests 17 a hearing by thirty days prior to the expiration of the order. If for good cause a 18 hearing cannot be held on the motion to renew or the objection to an automatic 19 renewal of the full order of protection prior to the expiration date of the originally 20 issued full order of protection, an ex parte order of protection may be issued until 21 a hearing is held on the motion. When an automatic renewal is not authorized, 22 upon motion by the petitioner, and after a hearing by the court, the second full 23 order of protection may be renewed for an additional period of time the court 24 deems appropriate, except that the protective order shall be valid for at least one 25 hundred eighty days and not more than one year. For purposes of this 26 subsection, a finding by the court of a subsequent act of domestic violence [or], 27 stalking, or sexual assault is not required for a renewal order of protection.

28         2. The court shall cause a copy of the petition and notice of the date set 29 for the hearing on such petition and any ex parte order of protection to be served 30 upon the respondent as provided by law or by any sheriff or police officer at least 31 three days prior to such hearing. The court shall cause a copy of any full order 32 of protection to be served upon or mailed by certified mail to the respondent at 33 the respondent's last known address. Notice of an ex parte or full order of 34 protection shall be served at the earliest time, and service of such notice shall 35 take priority over service in other actions, except those of a similar emergency 36 nature. Failure to serve or mail a copy of the full order of protection to the 37 respondent shall not affect the validity or enforceability of a full order of 38 protection.

39         3. A copy of any order of protection granted pursuant to sections 455.010 40 to 455.085 shall be issued to the petitioner and to the local law enforcement 41 agency in the jurisdiction where the petitioner resides. The clerk shall also issue 42 a copy of any order of protection to the local law enforcement agency responsible 43 for maintaining the Missouri uniform law enforcement system or any other 44 comparable law enforcement system the same day the order is granted. The law 45 enforcement agency responsible for maintaining MULES shall, for purposes of 46 verification, within twenty-four hours from the time the order is granted, enter 47 information contained in the order including but not limited to any orders 48 regarding child custody or visitation and all specifics as to times and dates of 49 custody or visitation that are provided in the order. A notice of expiration or of 50 termination of any order of protection or any change in child custody or visitation 51 within that order shall be issued to the local law enforcement agency and to the 52 law enforcement agency responsible for maintaining MULES or any other 53 comparable law enforcement system. The law enforcement agency responsible for 54 maintaining the applicable law enforcement system shall enter such information 55 in the system within twenty-four hours of receipt of information evidencing such 56 expiration or termination. The information contained in an order of protection 57 may be entered in the Missouri uniform law enforcement system or comparable 58 law enforcement system using a direct automated data transfer from the court 59 automated system to the law enforcement system.

60 4. The court shall cause a copy of any objection filed by the respondent 61 and notice of the date set for the hearing on such objection to an automatic 62 renewal of a full order of protection for a period of one year to be personally 63 served upon the petitioner by personal process server as provided by law or by a 64 sheriff or police officer at least three days prior to such hearing. Such service of 65 process shall be served at the earliest time and shall take priority over service in 66 other actions except those of a similar emergency nature.

455.045. Any ex parte order of protection granted pursuant to sections 2 455.010 to 455.085 shall be to protect the petitioner from domestic violence [or], 3 stalking, or sexual assault and may include:

4 (1) Restraining the respondent from committing or threatening to commit 5 domestic violence, molesting, stalking, sexual assault, or disturbing the peace 6 of the petitioner;

7 (2) Restraining the respondent from entering the premises of the dwelling 8 unit of petitioner when the dwelling unit is:

9 (a) Jointly owned, leased or rented or jointly occupied by both parties; or

10 (b) Owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner individually; or 11 (c) Jointly owned, leased or rented by petitioner and a person other than 12 respondent; provided, however, no spouse shall be denied relief pursuant to this 13 section by reason of the absence of a property interest in the dwelling unit; or 14 (d) Jointly occupied by the petitioner and a person other than the 15 respondent; provided that the respondent has no property interest in the dwelling 16 unit;

17 (3) Restraining the respondent from communicating with the petitioner 18 in any manner or through any medium;

19 (4) A temporary order of custody of minor children where appropriate.

455.050. 1. Any full or ex parte order of protection granted pursuant to 2 sections 455.010 to 455.085 shall be to protect the petitioner from domestic

3 violence, stalking, or sexual assault and may include such terms as the court 4 reasonably deems necessary to ensure the petitioner's safety, including but not 5 limited to:

6 (1) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from committing or threatening 7 to commit domestic violence, molesting, stalking, sexual assault, or disturbing 8 the peace of the petitioner;

9 (2) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from entering the premises of 10 the dwelling unit of the petitioner when the dwelling unit is:

11 (a) Jointly owned, leased or rented or jointly occupied by both parties; or

12 (b) Owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner individually; or

13 (c) Jointly owned, leased, rented or occupied by petitioner and a person 14 other than respondent; provided, however, no spouse shall be denied relief 15 pursuant to this section by reason of the absence of a property interest in the 16 dwelling unit; or

17 (d) Jointly occupied by the petitioner and a person other than respondent; 18 provided that the respondent has no property interest in the dwelling unit; or 19 (3) Temporarily enjoining the respondent from communicating with the 20 petitioner in any manner or through any medium.

21 2. Mutual orders of protection are prohibited unless both parties have 22 properly filed written petitions and proper service has been made in accordance 23 with sections 455.010 to 455.085.

24 3. When the court has, after a hearing for any full order of protection, 25 issued an order of protection, it may, in addition:

26 (1) Award custody of any minor child born to or adopted by the parties 27 when the court has jurisdiction over such child and no prior order regarding 28 custody is pending or has been made, and the best interests of the child require 29 such order be issued;

30 (2) Establish a visitation schedule that is in the best interests of the child;

31 (3) Award child support in accordance with supreme court rule 88.01 and 32 chapter 452;

33 (4) Award maintenance to petitioner when petitioner and respondent are 34 lawfully married in accordance with chapter 452;

35 (5) Order respondent to make or to continue to make rent or mortgage 36 payments on a residence occupied by the petitioner if the respondent is found to 37 have a duty to support the petitioner or other dependent household members;

38 (6) Order the respondent to pay the petitioner's rent at a residence other 39 than the one previously shared by the parties if the respondent is found to have 40 a duty to support the petitioner and the petitioner requests alternative housing;

41 (7) Order that the petitioner be given temporary possession of specified 42 personal property, such as automobiles, checkbooks, keys, and other personal 43 effects;

44 (8) Prohibit the respondent from transferring, encumbering, or otherwise 45 disposing of specified property mutually owned or leased by the parties;

46 (9) Order the respondent to participate in a court-approved counseling 47 program designed to help batterers stop violent behavior or to participate in a 48 substance abuse treatment program;

49 (10) Order the respondent to pay a reasonable fee for housing and other 50 services that have been provided or that are being provided to the petitioner by 51 a shelter for victims of domestic violence;

52 (11) Order the respondent to pay court costs;

53 (12) Order the respondent to pay the cost of medical treatment and 54 services that have been provided or that are being provided to the petitioner as 55 a result of injuries sustained to the petitioner by an act of domestic violence 56 committed by the respondent.

57 4. A verified petition seeking orders for maintenance, support, custody, 58 visitation, payment of rent, payment of monetary compensation, possession of 59 personal property, prohibiting the transfer, encumbrance, or disposal of property, 60 or payment for services of a shelter for victims of domestic violence, shall contain 61 allegations relating to those orders and shall pray for the orders desired.

62 5. In making an award of custody, the court shall consider all relevant 63 factors including the presumption that the best interests of the child will be 64 served by placing the child in the custody and care of the nonabusive parent, 65 unless there is evidence that both parents have engaged in abusive behavior, in 66 which case the court shall not consider this presumption but may appoint a 67 guardian ad litem or a court-appointed special advocate to represent the children 68 in accordance with chapter 452 and shall consider all other factors in accordance 69 with chapter 452.

70 6. The court shall grant to the noncustodial parent rights to visitation 71 with any minor child born to or adopted by the parties, unless the court finds, 72 after hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical health, impair 73 the child's emotional development or would otherwise conflict with the best 74 interests of the child, or that no visitation can be arranged which would

75 sufficiently protect the custodial parent from further domestic violence. The court 76 may appoint a guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate to represent 77 the minor child in accordance with chapter 452 whenever the custodial parent 78 alleges that visitation with the noncustodial parent will damage the minor child.

79         7. The court shall make an order requiring the noncustodial party to pay 80 an amount reasonable and necessary for the support of any child to whom the 81 party owes a duty of support when no prior order of support is outstanding and 82 after all relevant factors have been considered, in accordance with Missouri 83 supreme court rule 88.01 and chapter 452.

84         8. The court may grant a maintenance order to a party for a period of 85 time, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. Any maintenance ordered by the 86 court shall be in accordance with chapter 452.

455.080. 1. Law enforcement agencies may establish procedures to ensure 2 that dispatchers and officers at the scene of an alleged incident of domestic 3 violence [or], stalking, sexual assault, or violation of an order of protection can 4 be informed of any recorded prior incident of domestic violence [or], stalking, or 5 sexual assault involving the abused party and can verify the effective dates and 6 terms of any recorded order of protection.

7         2. The law enforcement agency shall apply the same standard for response 8 to an alleged incident of domestic violence [or], stalking, sexual assault, or a 9 violation of any order of protection as applied to any like offense involving 10 strangers, except as otherwise provided by law. Law enforcement agencies shall 11 not assign lower priority to calls involving alleged incidents of domestic violence 12 [or], stalking, sexual assault, or violation of protection orders than is assigned 13 in responding to offenses involving strangers. Existence of any of the following 14 factors shall be interpreted as indicating a need for immediate response:

- 15         (1) The caller indicates that violence is imminent or in progress; or 16         (2) A protection order is in effect; or 17         (3) The caller indicates that incidents of domestic violence have occurred 18 previously between the parties.

19         3. Law enforcement agencies may establish domestic crisis teams or, if the 20 agency has fewer than five officers whose responsibility it is to respond to calls 21 of this nature, individual officers trained in methods of dealing with domestic 22 violence. Such teams or individuals may be supplemented by social workers, 23 ministers or other persons trained in counseling or crisis intervention. When an 24 alleged incident of domestic violence is reported, the agency may dispatch a crisis

25 team or specially trained officer, if available, to the scene of the incident.

26 4. The officer at the scene of an alleged incident of domestic violence [or], 27 stalking, or sexual assault shall inform the abused party of available judicial 28 remedies for relief from domestic violence and of available shelters for victims of 29 domestic violence.

30 5. Law enforcement officials at the scene shall provide or arrange 31 transportation for the abused party to a medical facility for treatment of injuries 32 or to a place of shelter or safety.

455.085. 1. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe 2 a party has committed a violation of law amounting to domestic violence, as 3 defined in section 455.010, against a family or household member, the officer may 4 arrest the offending party whether or not the violation occurred in the presence
5 of the arresting officer. When the officer declines to make arrest pursuant to this 6 subsection, the officer shall make a written report of the incident completely 7 describing the offending party, giving the victim's name, time, address, reason
8 why no arrest was made and any other pertinent information. Any law
9 enforcement officer subsequently called to the same address within a twelve-hour
10 period, who shall find probable cause to believe the same offender has again 11 committed a violation as stated in this subsection against the same or any other 12 family or household member, shall arrest the offending party for this subsequent 13 offense. The primary report of nonarrest in the preceding twelve-hour period may 14 be considered as evidence of the defendant's intent in the violation for which 15 arrest occurred. The refusal of the victim to sign an official complaint against the 16 violator shall not prevent an arrest under this subsection.

17 2. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a 18 party, against whom a protective order has been entered and who has notice of 19 such order entered, has committed an act of abuse in violation of such order, the 20 officer shall arrest the offending party-respondent whether or not the violation 21 occurred in the presence of the arresting officer. Refusal of the victim to sign an 22 official complaint against the violator shall not prevent an arrest under this 23 subsection.

24 3. When an officer makes an arrest, the officer is not required to arrest 25 two parties involved in an assault when both parties claim to have been 26 assaulted. The arresting officer shall attempt to identify and shall arrest the 27 party the officer believes is the primary physical aggressor. The term "primary 28 physical aggressor" is defined as the most significant, rather than the first,

29 aggressor. The law enforcement officer shall consider any or all of the following 30 in determining the primary physical aggressor:

31 (1) The intent of the law to protect victims from continuing domestic 32 violence;

33 (2) The comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating 34 fear of physical injury;

35 (3) The history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

36 No law enforcement officer investigating an incident of domestic violence shall 37 threaten the arrest of all parties for the purpose of discouraging requests or law
38 enforcement intervention by any party. Where complaints are received from two 39 or more opposing parties, the officer shall evaluate each complaint separately to 40 determine whether the officer should seek a warrant for an arrest.

41 4. In an arrest in which a law enforcement officer acted in good faith 42 reliance on this section, the arresting and assisting law enforcement officers and 43 their employing entities and superiors shall be immune from liability in any civil 44 action alleging false arrest, false imprisonment or malicious prosecution.

45 5. When a person against whom an order of protection has been entered 46 fails to surrender custody of minor children to the person to whom custody was 47 awarded in an order of protection, the law enforcement officer shall arrest the 48 respondent, and shall turn the minor children over to the care and custody of the 49 party to whom such care and custody was awarded.

50 6. The same procedures, including those designed to protect constitutional 51 rights, shall be applied to the respondent as those applied to any individual 52 detained in police custody.

53 7. A violation of the terms and conditions, with regard to domestic 54 violence, stalking, sexual assault, child custody, communication initiated by the 55 respondent or entrance upon the premises of the petitioner's dwelling unit or 56 place of employment or school, or being within a certain distance of the petitioner 57 or a child of the petitioner, of an ex parte order of protection of which the 58 respondent has notice, shall be a class A misdemeanor unless the respondent has 59 previously pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty in any division of the circuit
60 court of violating an ex parte order of protection or a full order of protection 61 within five years of the date of the subsequent violation, in which case the 62 subsequent violation shall be a class E felony. Evidence of prior pleas of guilty 63 or findings of guilt shall be heard by the court out of the presence of the jury 64 prior to submission of the case to the jury. If the court finds the existence of such

65 prior pleas of guilty or finding of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall 66 decide the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition and shall not 67 instruct the jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury to assess and 68 declare the punishment as a part of its verdict.

69 8. A violation of the terms and conditions, with regard to domestic 70 violence, stalking, sexual assault, child custody, communication initiated by the 71 respondent or entrance upon the premises of the petitioner's dwelling unit or 72 place of employment or school, or being within a certain distance of the petitioner
73 or a child of the petitioner, of a full order of protection shall be a class A 74 misdemeanor, unless the respondent has previously pleaded guilty to or has been 75 found guilty in any division of the circuit court of violating an ex parte order of 76 protection or a full order of protection within five years of the date of the 77 subsequent violation, in which case the subsequent violation shall be a class E 78 felony. Evidence of prior pleas of guilty or findings of guilt shall be heard by the 79 court out of the presence of the jury prior to submission of the case to the jury.
80 If the court finds the existence of such prior plea of guilty or finding of guilt 81 beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall decide the extent or duration of the 82 sentence or other disposition and shall not instruct the jury as to the range of 83 punishment or allow the jury to assess and declare the punishment as a part of 84 its verdict. For the purposes of this subsection, in addition to the notice provided 85 by actual service of the order, a party is deemed to have notice of an order of 86 protection if the law enforcement officer responding to a call of a reported
87 incident of domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, or violation of an order 88 of protection presented a copy of the order of protection to the respondent.

89 9. Good faith attempts to effect a reconciliation of a marriage shall not be 90 deemed tampering with a witness or victim tampering under section 575.270.

91 10. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as creating a private cause 92 of action for damages to enforce the provisions set forth herein.

455.085. 1. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe 2 a party has committed a violation of law amounting to domestic violence, as 3 defined in section 455.010, against a family or household member, the officer may 4 arrest the offending party whether or not the violation occurred in the presence
5 of the arresting officer. When the officer declines to make arrest pursuant to this 6 subsection, the officer shall make a written report of the incident completely 7 describing the offending party, giving the victim's name, time, address, reason
8 why no arrest was made and any other pertinent information. Any law

9 enforcement officer subsequently called to the same address within a twelve-hour
10 period, who shall find probable cause to believe the same offender has again
11 committed a violation as stated in this subsection against the same or any other 12 family or household member, shall arrest the offending party for this subsequent 13 offense. The primary report of nonarrest in the preceding twelve-hour period may 14 be considered as evidence of the defendant's intent in the violation for which 15 arrest occurred. The refusal of the victim to sign an official complaint against the 16 violator shall not prevent an arrest under this subsection.

17 2. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a 18 party, against whom a protective order has been entered and who has notice of 19 such order entered, has committed an act of abuse in violation of such order, the 20 officer shall arrest the offending party-respondent whether or not the violation 21 occurred in the presence of the arresting officer. Refusal of the victim to sign an 22 official complaint against the violator shall not prevent an arrest under this 23 subsection.

24 3. When an officer makes an arrest, the officer is not required to arrest 25 two parties involved in an assault when both parties claim to have been 26 assaulted. The arresting officer shall attempt to identify and shall arrest the 27 party the officer believes is the primary physical aggressor. The term "primary 28 physical aggressor" is defined as the most significant, rather than the first,
29 aggressor. The law enforcement officer shall consider any or all of the following 30 in determining the primary physical aggressor:

31 (1) The intent of the law to protect victims from continuing domestic 32 violence;

33 (2) The comparative extent of injuries inflicted or serious threats creating 34 fear of physical injury;

35 (3) The history of domestic violence between the persons involved.

36 No law enforcement officer investigating an incident of domestic violence shall 37 threaten the arrest of all parties for the purpose of discouraging requests or law
38 enforcement intervention by any party. Where complaints are received from two 39 or more opposing parties, the officer shall evaluate each complaint separately to 40 determine whether the officer should seek a warrant for an arrest.

41 4. In an arrest in which a law enforcement officer acted in good faith 42 reliance on this section, the arresting and assisting law enforcement officers and 43 their employing entities and superiors shall be immune from liability in any civil 44 action alleging false arrest, false imprisonment or malicious prosecution.

45           5. When a person against whom an order of protection has been entered 46 fails to surrender custody of minor children to the person to whom custody was 47 awarded in an order of protection, the law enforcement officer shall arrest the 48 respondent, and shall turn the minor children over to the care and custody of the 49 party to whom such care and custody was awarded.

50           6. The same procedures, including those designed to protect constitutional 51 rights, shall be applied to the respondent as those applied to any individual 52 detained in police custody.

53           7. A violation of the terms and conditions, with regard to domestic 54 violence, stalking, sexual assault, child custody, communication initiated by the 55 respondent or entrance upon the premises of the petitioner's dwelling unit or 56 place of employment or school, or being within a certain distance of the petitioner 57 or a child of the petitioner, of an ex parte order of protection of which the 58 respondent has notice, shall be a class A misdemeanor unless the respondent has 59 previously pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty in any division of the circuit
60 court of violating an ex parte order of protection or a full order of protection 61 within five years of the date of the subsequent violation, in which case the 62 subsequent violation shall be a class D felony. Evidence of prior pleas of guilty
63 or findings of guilt shall be heard by the court out of the presence of the jury 64 prior to submission of the case to the jury. If the court finds the existence of such 65 prior pleas of guilty or finding of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall 66 decide the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition and shall not 67 instruct the jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury to assess and 68 declare the punishment as a part of its verdict.

69           8. A violation of the terms and conditions, with regard to domestic 70 violence, stalking, sexual assault, child custody, communication initiated by the 71 respondent or entrance upon the premises of the petitioner's dwelling unit or 72 place of employment or school, or being within a certain distance of the petitioner
73 or a child of the petitioner, of a full order of protection shall be a class A 74 misdemeanor, unless the respondent has previously pleaded guilty to or has been 75 found guilty in any division of the circuit court of violating an ex parte order of 76 protection or a full order of protection within five years of the date of the 77 subsequent violation, in which case the subsequent violation shall be a class D 78 felony. Evidence of prior pleas of guilty or findings of guilt shall be heard by the 79 court out of the presence of the jury prior to submission of the case to the jury.
80 If the court finds the existence of such prior plea of guilty or finding of guilt

81 beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall decide the extent or duration of the 82 sentence or other disposition and shall not instruct the jury as to the range of 83 punishment or allow the jury to assess and declare the punishment as a part of 84 its verdict. For the purposes of this subsection, in addition to the notice provided 85 by actual service of the order, a party is deemed to have notice of an order of 86 protection if the law enforcement officer responding to a call of a reported
87 incident of domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, or violation of an order 88 of protection presented a copy of the order of protection to the respondent.

89 9. Good faith attempts to effect a reconciliation of a marriage shall not be 90 deemed tampering with a witness or victim tampering under section 575.270.

91 10. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted as creating a private cause 92 of action for damages to enforce the provisions set forth herein.

455.503. 1. A petition for an order of protection for a child shall be filed 2 in the county where the child resides, where the alleged incident of domestic 3 violence [or], stalking, or sexual assault occurred, or where the respondent may 4 be served.

5 2. Such petition may be filed by any of the following:

6 (1) A parent or guardian of the victim;

7 (2) A guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate appointed for 8 the victim; or

9 (3) The juvenile officer.

455.505. 1. An order of protection for a child who has been subject to 2 domestic violence by a present or former household member or [person] sexual 3 assault or stalking [the child] by any person may be sought under sections 4 455.500 to 455.538 by the filing of a verified petition alleging such domestic 5 violence [or], stalking, or sexual assault by the respondent.

6 2. A child's right to relief under sections 455.500 to 455.538 shall not be 7 affected by the child's leaving the residence or household to avoid domestic 8 violence.

9 3. Any protection order issued pursuant to sections 455.500 to 455.538
10 shall be effective throughout the state in all cities and counties.

455.513. 1. Upon the filing of a verified petition under sections 455.500 2 to 455.538, for good cause shown in the petition, and upon finding that no prior 3 order regarding custody is pending or has been made or that the respondent is 4 less than seventeen years of age, the court may immediately issue an ex parte 5 order of protection. An immediate and present danger of domestic violence [or],

6 stalking, or sexual assault to a child shall constitute good cause for purposes 7 of this section. An ex parte order of protection entered by the court shall be in 8 effect until the time of the hearing. The court shall deny the ex parte order and 9 dismiss the petition if the petitioner is not authorized to seek relief pursuant to 10 section 455.505.

11 2. Upon the entry of the ex parte order of protection, the court shall enter 12 its order appointing a guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate to 13 represent the child victim.

14 3. If the allegations in the petition would give rise to jurisdiction under 15 section 211.031, the court may direct the children's division to conduct an 16 investigation and to provide appropriate services. The division shall submit a 17 written investigative report to the court and to the juvenile officer within thirty 18 days of being ordered to do so. The report shall be made available to the parties 19 and the guardian ad litem or court-appointed special advocate.

20 4. If the allegations in the petition would give rise to jurisdiction under

3 committed an act in violation of that order, the officer shall have the authority 4 to arrest the respondent whether or not the violation occurred in the presence of 5 the arresting officer.

6 2. When a person, against whom an order of protection for a child has 7 been entered, fails to surrender custody of minor children to the person to whom 8 custody was awarded in an order of protection, the law enforcement officer shall 9 arrest the respondent, and shall turn the minor children over to the care and 10 custody of the party to whom such care and custody was awarded.

11 3. The same procedures, including those designed to protect constitutional

27 the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition and shall not instruct the 28 jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury to assess and declare the 29 punishment as a part of its verdict.

30 (2) For purposes of this subsection, in addition to the notice provided by 31 actual service of the order, a party is deemed to have notice of an order of

33 reported incident of domestic violence [or], stalking, sexual assault, or violation 34 of an order of protection for a child presents a copy of the order of protection to 35 the respondent.

36           5. The fact that an act by a respondent is a violation of a valid order of 38 crimes arising out of the incident in which the protection order is alleged to have 39 been violated.

455.538. 1. When a law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe

9 arrest the respondent, and shall turn the minor children over to the care and 10 custody of the party to whom such care and custody was awarded.

11           3. The same procedures, including those designed to protect constitutional 12 rights, shall be applied to the respondent as those applied to any individual 13 detained in police custody.

14           4. (1) Violation of the terms and conditions of an ex parte or full order of 15 protection with regard to domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, child 16 custody, communication initiated by the respondent, or entrance upon the 17 premises of the victim's dwelling unit or place of employment or school, or being 18 within a certain distance of the petitioner or a child of the petitioner, of which the 19 respondent has notice, shall be a class A misdemeanor, unless the respondent has 20 previously pleaded guilty to or has been found guilty in any division of the circuit
21 court of violating an ex parte order of protection or a full order of protection 22 within five years of the date of the subsequent violation, in which case the 23 subsequent violation shall be a class D felony. Evidence of a prior plea of guilty 24 or finding of guilt shall be heard by the court out of the presence of the jury prior 25 to submission of the case to the jury. If the court finds the existence of a prior 26 plea of guilty or finding of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the court shall decide 27 the extent or duration of sentence or other disposition and shall not instruct the 28 jury as to the range of punishment or allow the jury to assess and declare the 29 punishment as a part of its verdict.

30           (2) For purposes of this subsection, in addition to the notice provided by 31 actual service of the order, a party is deemed to have notice of an order of 32 protection for a child if the law enforcement officer responding to a call of a

33 reported incident of domestic violence [or], stalking, sexual assault, or violation 34 of an order of protection for a child presents a copy of the order of protection to 35 the respondent.

36           5. The fact that an act by a respondent is a violation of a valid order of
