

Journal of the Senate
NINETY-EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE
STATE OF MISSOURI
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
VETO SESSION

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 2015

The Senate was called to order in Veto Session by Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him my heart trusts;” (Psalm 27:7a)

Almighty God, we gather together once more to do the work of the Senate. We know that change is inevitable and leadership change affects us all. We will miss what we have had and view the transition we share as an opportunity to experience your faithfulness and seek to know what it will mean to each of us. We pray that we will be open to the growth it offers and spiritual movement it holds. With strength that comes from You we face the challenges of vetoed bills that we deem worthy. Be with us in our discernment and guide our thoughts and decisions this day. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

The following Senators were present during the day’s proceedings:

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following communications, regarding vetoed Senate Bills were received by the Secretary of State, reading of which was waived:

GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

July 11, 2015

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 224 (Senate Bill No. 224), entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 160.545 RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to eligibility criteria for reimbursements from the A+ schools program.

I disapprove of Senate Bill No. 224. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Bill No. 224 would unfairly deny a group of students their eligibility for A+ financial aid, an educational benefit that they have earned, having met all the educational standards that apply, usually after overcoming significant odds against them. Its unwarranted exclusion of these meritorious students cannot be condoned.

Under existing Missouri law (section 173.1110.1, RSMo), students who are unlawfully present in the United States are not eligible for “a postsecondary education public benefit.” One of these benefits includes eligibility for A+ financial aid. This eligibility is distinguished from the criteria for Bright Flight and Access Missouri scholarships, both of which require that recipients are “citizens or permanent residents of the United States.”

A number of mechanisms exist in current Missouri law for students to prove that they are legally present in the U.S. One of them is “any document issued by the federal government that confirms an alien’s lawful presence in the United States.” Such documentation now includes the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s determination that a student meets the criteria for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), under guidelines established in 2012.

Senate Bill No. 224’s sole purpose is to deny students, deemed to be lawfully present in the United States, from being A+ eligible.

Who are these students? They came to the U.S. through no choice or action of their own. They arrived as young dependents, in the controlling embrace of an adult who entered the U.S. illegally. They bear no responsibility for this action.

Because DACA students have had to be continuously present in the United States since June 15, 2007, students who are, or who will be, graduating from high school would have had to be 10 years old or younger when they were brought to the U.S. DACA status requires eligible individuals to be in school currently, or to have graduated from high school, or to be honorably discharged from the United States Military. And it requires that they have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors.

A group of DACA students have now lived in Missouri for at least eight years and have met every standard for A+ financial aid. They have attended a public Missouri high school for at least three years. They have earned at least a 2.5 GPA. They have maintained a 95% attendance rate. They have volunteered in their communities or tutored other students. And they have done so while overcoming daunting obstacles such as learning English, living in fear of deportation, and facing the constant stigma of being an alien.

Senate Bill No. 224 is the legislature’s attempt to deny these students the A+ benefit they have otherwise earned. Rather than discouraging the continuing education of these students, the state has an interest in encouraging their successful participation in higher education so that they have an opportunity to pursue productive careers and make positive contributions to the state of Missouri.

Senate Bill No. 224 is a harsh measure imposed unfairly on children who have done nothing wrong. Quite to the contrary, they have done much to be admired, in their studies, for their schools, and on behalf of their communities. Rather than rewarding them for their achievements, Senate Bill No. 224 singles them out for exclusion. Consequently, Senate Bill No. 224 cannot receive my support.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 224 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon
Governor

July 10, 2015

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Bill No. 20 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal section 144.054, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to a sales tax exemption for commercial laundries.

I disapprove of Senate Bill No. 20. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Bill No. 20 would exempt commercial laundries and dry cleaners from paying state and local sales and use tax on their purchases of materials, goods, machinery, electrical energy and gas, chemicals, soaps, detergents, cleaning and sanitizing agents, and other ingredients used to treat, clean and sanitize textiles. The new tax exemptions would be available for large commercial and industrial laundries and dry cleaners – approximately 48 facilities owned by 29 different companies that process at least 500 pounds per hour and 60,000 pounds per week. There is no requirement that a benefitting business create any new jobs to take advantage of these broad new exemptions. This provision would result in a projected $2 million annual reduction in state revenue as well as an additional $2 million reduction projected for local jurisdictions.

The special tax break for commercial laundries contained in Senate Bill No. 20 is not the mere clarification of existing sales and use tax law that supporters claim. Instead, this provision would seek to overrule 25 years of legal precedent holding that cleaning dirty clothes is not the same as manufacturing. In 1989, the Missouri Supreme Court first “plumbed the sudsy depths of various sales and use tax exemptions and found no application to commercial laundry operations.” AAA Laundry & Linen Supply Co. v. Director of Revenue, 425 S.W.3d 126, 127 (Mo. Banc 2014) (discussing Unitog Rental Services, Inc. v. Director of Revenue, 799 S.W.2d 568 (Mo. Banc1989)). As recently as last year, the court similarly rejected a commercial laundry’s attempt to avoid paying its taxes, reiterating that, as in 1989, the laws enacted by the General Assembly did not provide a tax exemption. Id. at 127-29. Since that decision, these commercial laundries have spent the last two years lobbying lawmakers for tailor-made exemptions that would treat ironing out wrinkles as “processing” a shirt and getting grass stains out as “manufacturing” a pair of pants, thereby abrogating a quarter century of law and relieving the laundries of their existing legal obligations.

Last year, this provision was slipped into Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 662 (2014), which was met with my disapproval. As with Senate Bill No. 662 (2014), Senate Bill No. 20 continues an effort to promote poor tax policy by drawing a seemingly arbitrary distinction between the laundries and dry cleaners fortunate enough to gain this generous new benefit and the rest that are left out to dry. Under this provision, a laundry that processes 59,999 pounds per week would have to continue paying their taxes, but a laundry processing a single pound more would be entitled to broad new exemptions from state and local taxes. This distorts the free market and puts smaller laundries and dry cleaners (not to mention the Missouri families who are doing their own laundry) in the position of subsidizing the operations of larger ones. The commercial laundries might be getting their detergent tax-free, but the rest of Missouri taxpayers would be getting taken to the cleaners.

Senate Bill No. 20 does not simply give commercial laundries and dry cleaners the same tax exemptions enjoyed by other businesses. It gives them more lucrative ones. Although some of the tax exemptions available to manufacturers are limited solely to state taxes, these new exemptions for laundries would apply to local taxes as well. With this provision, the General Assembly would be privileging washing dirty clothes over manufacturing new products, giving commercial dry cleaners and laundries a better deal than Missouri manufacturers without any clearly-articulated economic justification for doing so and without requiring the creation of even a single new job.

The commercial laundry exemption provided by Senate Bill No. 20 represents poor tax policy and cannot receive my approval.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Bill No. 20 without my approval.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 67 (Senate Bill No. 67) entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 67.320, 476.083, 534.350, 534.360, 535.030, 535.110, and 535.160, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof ten new sections relating to courts.

I disapprove of Senate Bill No. 67. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Like House Bill No. 799, Senate Bill No. 67 would authorize more court fees to fund an array of local capital projects. In doing so, it continues what has evolved into a regular legislative exercise of imposing additional court fees. Local capital projects should be funded through existing local revenues or, with voter approval, new revenue sources rather than through a back-door tax in the form of court user fees. For that reason, Senate Bill No. 67 cannot receive my support.

Senate Bill No. 67 would authorize new court fees and expand existing court fees in specific judicial circuits to be used by jurisdictions identified in the legislation. These new and expanded court fees, ranging from one to fifty dollars, would be in addition to the myriad of court fees already imposed in criminal and civil cases across our state. Moreover, these court fees would not be limited to state courts. Senate Bill No. 67 would authorize these fees be imposed on many county and municipal ordinance violations. The cumulative impact of these court fees is harmful to those that find themselves involved in court proceedings and could pose a barrier to court access for civil litigants.

The proliferation of excessive court fees is recasting the role of the courts into revenue generators for special projects. Court fees and surcharges should not be used as an alternative form of taxation. If a local government wants to raise revenue for its building projects, that question should be submitted to the voters for their approval rather than using the courts as a back-door revenue source. The increasingly common practice of looking to the courts to raise funds must stop. I previously approved Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 5 based on the belief that our courts should serve justice rather than generate revenue, and for those reasons the court fee increases in Senate Bill No. 67 will not receive my approval.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Conference Committee Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 67 without my approval.

Herewith I return to you Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 142 (Senate Bill No. 142) entitled:

AN ACT

To amend chapter 640, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to implementation impact reports.

I disapprove of Senate Bill No. 142. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Bill No. 142 contains drafting errors that vitiate its intended purpose. Senate Bill No. 142 would require the department of natural resources to submit to the general assembly an "implementation impact report" regarding state plans to comply with the federal Clean Air Act and Clean Water Act. The report and the plan itself would be required to be submitted 45 days before the plan is submitted to the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

In imposing this requirement for plans regarding clean air, Senate Bill No. 142 requires the department to prepare and submit a report when it is "developing, amending, or revising . . . state plans to comply with federal regulations relating to carbon emissions for existing-source performance standards (42 U.S.C. Section 7412)." (Senate Bill No. 142, page 1, lines 4-6). The referenced section – 42 U.S.C. Section 7412 – is part of the Clean Air Act, but it contains no requirement that a state submit a plan "relating to carbon emissions for existing-source performance standards." It appears that the drafters meant to cite to 42 U.S.C. 7411, under which, among other things, states must develop and submit plans to address emissions of carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases. In addition, on page 3, line 86, Senate Bill No. 142 cites to "33 U.S.C. Section 12541, et seq." There is no such section in federal law.

These drafting errors take an already complex area of state and federal law and confuses it further. Given the stakes for those impacted, I cannot approve legislation that will cause uncertainty for companies doing business in Missouri.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Substitute No. 3 for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 142 without my approval.

TO THE SECRETARY OF THE STATE OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI

Herewith I return to you Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 345 entitled:

AN ACT

To repeal sections 361.707, 361.715, 364.030, 364.105, 365.030, 367.140, 407.640, 408.140, 408.500, and 443.719, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof ten new sections relating to financial transactions, with an existing penalty provision.

I disapprove of Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 345. My reasons for disapproval are as follows:

Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 345 would increase the fee that lenders can charge consumers for many loans that are for periods of 30 days or longer. Current law limits this fee to 10% of the principal up to $75, but this bill would increase the fee to 10% of the principal up to $100. This means that most consumer credit loans over $750, not secured by a mortgage, could see a fee increase. Consumer credit loans of $1,000 or more could have a $100 fee, where lenders can currently only charge $75. This is an approximately 33% increase in the fee on a large portion of loans made to Missourians.

The loans affected by this bill are offered by banks, credit unions, finance companies, consumer installment lenders, title loan companies, and small loan companies. These loans include everything from a car loan from a bank to a loan for unexpected home repairs from a store-front lender in a strip mall.

This fee increase will have the most impact on consumers of limited means who take out relatively small loans and would have a repetitive financial impact as they could be charged on any extension, refinance, restructure or renewal of the loan, if there is "any investigation" on the subsequent application.

Unlike interest, which is typically earned day-by-day, lenders earn this fee at the time the loan is entered into, so even if a person repaid the loan early, Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 345 would cost them more money.

This is the second time in two years that Missourians have seen an increase in fees on small loans, as the General Assembly gave lenders the ability to increase this fee in 2013 by overriding my veto of Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 329 and increasing the percentage of this fee from 5% up to $75 to 10% up to $75.

Allowing lenders to charge Missourians more in fees is not the way to move Missouri forward, therefore Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 345 does not receive my approval.

In accordance with the above stated reasons for disapproval, I am returning Senate Bill No. 345 without my approval.

Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon

OBJECTIONS

Senator Sifton submitted the following:

September 17, 2015

Adriane Crouse
Secretary of the Senate
Missouri Senate
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Ms. Crouse:

Pursuant to Article III, Section 30 of the Missouri Constitution, I hereby submit a constitutional objection to House Bill No. 150. The basis for my objection is as follows:

Under Article III, Section 32, legislation vetoed by the Governor and returned with his objections with more than five days remaining in a legislative session must be reconsidered prior to adjournment. It is only legislation vetoed by the Governor and returned with five or fewer days remaining in the session or after adjournment that can be taken up during the September veto session. To emphasize this point, the language of Article III, Section 32 is clear that if no legislation is vetoed by the Governor and returned with five or fewer days left in the regular session or after adjournment, the veto session is not held.

House Bill No. 150 was presented to the Governor on April 22, 2015. The decision of the General Assembly to present House Bill No. 150 during the legislative session resulted in the Governor having only fifteen days to consider and act on the legislation as opposed to the more traditional 45 days the Governor is afforded for bills presented after adjournment. In addition to limiting the Governor's period to act, the General Assembly also narrowed its time to consider his veto. The Governor returned House Bill No. 150 with his objections on May 5, 2015—ten days prior to the end of session. As a result, under Article III, Section 32, the General Assembly was required to reconsider House Bill No. 150 prior to our adjournment at 6:00 p.m. on May 15, 2015.

The Missouri Senate's failure to reconsider House Bill No. 150 during the regular session resulted in the Governor's veto standing. Any subsequent action by the Missouri Senate on House Bill No. 150 during the 2015 veto session would be in direct violation of Article III, Section 32 of the Missouri Constitution and a legal nullity.

Yours truly,

Senator Scott Sifton
District 1

COMMUNICATIONS

President Pro Tem Richard submitted the following:

September 16, 2015

Ms. Adriane Crouse
