

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2016

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Silvey in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“Show your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom.” (James 3:13b)

Heavenly Father as we complete our work this day, may it be done with wisdom and caring. And may our weekend be filled with efforts that see the neighbor and by our words of encouragement show our willingness to help, and may they know that gentle wisdom and helping hand began and continues in our relationship with You. Let our witness ever be expressed in a quiet and encouraging manner. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Senator Kehoe announced photographers from KOMU TV were given permission to take pictures in the Senate Chamber.

Mr. President: Your Committee on Governmental Accountability and Fiscal Oversight, to which was referred SS for SB 608, begs leave to report that it has considered the same and recommends that the bill do pass.

RESOLUTIONS

Senator Richard, joined by the entire membership, offered the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1477

Whereas, the members of the Missouri Senate are profoundly moved by the sudden and unexpected passing of United States Supreme Court Justice Antonin Gregory Scalia on February 13, 2016; and

Whereas, Supreme Court Chief Justice John G. Roberts, Jr. released a statement that includes “He was an extraordinary individual and jurist His passing is a great loss to the Court and the country he so loyally served”; and

Whereas, Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy writes, “the driving force in all his work, and his powerful personality were shaped by an unyielding commitment to the Constitution of the United States and to the highest ethical and moral standards”; and

Whereas, Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas expressed his admiration thus, “[he] was a good man; a wonderful husband who loved his wife and his family; a man of strong faith; a towering intellect; a legal giant”; and

Whereas, dear friend and colleague Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg writes, “He was jurist of captivating brilliance and wit, with a rare talent to make even the most sober judge laugh.... He was eminently quotable, his pungent opinions so clearly stated that his words never slipped from the reader’s grasp”; and

Whereas, Supreme Court Justice Steven G. Breyer describes him as a “legal titan.... He was a man of integrity and wit. His interests were wide ranging as was his knowledge about law, this Nation and its Constitution. He loved his family. He also loved ideas, music, and the out of doors”; and

Whereas, Supreme Court Justice Samuel Alito recalls him as a “towering figure who will be remembered as one of the most important figures in the history of the Supreme Court and a scholar who deeply influenced our legal culture”; and

Whereas, Supreme Court Justice Elena Kagan predicts he will go down in history “as one of the most transformational Supreme Court Justices of our nation. His views on interpreting texts have changed the way all of us think and talk about the law”:

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-eighth General Assembly, join the citizens of this great country in solemn mourning of the passing of Justice Scalia and the consequential and unfathomable loss to his family, his friends, and his country; and

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in memoriam of United States Supreme Court Justice Antonin Gregory Scalia.

Senator Richard moved that SR 1477 be adopted, which motion prevailed.

HOUSE BILLS ON THIRD READING

Senator Onder moved that HB 1979, with SCS, SS for SCS, SA 1, SSA 1 for SA 1 and SA 1 to SSA 1 for SA 1 (pending), be called from the Informal Calendar and again taken up for perfection, which motion prevailed.

Senator Chappelle-Nadal moved that the above amendment be adopted.

Senator Brown raised the point of order that SA 1 to SA 4 is out of order as it goes beyond the intended scope of the bill.

Senator Schmitt assumed the Chair.

The point of order was referred to the President Pro Tem who ruled it well taken.

SA 4 was again taken up.

Senator Schaaf moved that the above amendment be adopted, which motion prevailed.

Senator Schupp offered SA 5:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 5

Amend Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1979, Page 5, Section 105.481, Line 2, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“130.039. 1. In addition to the limitations imposed under section 130.031, the amount of contributions made by or accepted from any person other than the candidate in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor, or attorney general, five thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, one thousand five hundred dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, seven hundred fifty dollars;

(4) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census does not exceed fifty thousand, seven hundred fifty dollars;

(5) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is more than fifty thousand but does not exceed one hundred fifty thousand, one thousand five hundred dollars; and

(6) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is greater than one hundred fifty thousand, five thousand dollars.

2. The amount of aggregate contributions made by any single contributor in a calendar year to any political party committee shall not exceed thirty-two thousand four hundred dollars.

3. For purposes of this subsection, “base year amount” shall be the contribution limits prescribed in this section on January 1, 2017. Such limits shall be increased on the first day of January in each odd-numbered year by multiplying the base year amount by the cumulative consumer price index, as defined in section 104.010 and rounded to the nearest twenty-five dollar amount, for all years since January 1, 2017.

4. Every committee established under this chapter shall be subject to the limits prescribed in subsection 1 of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall not limit the amount of contributions that may be accumulated by a candidate committee and used for expenditures to further the nomination or election of the candidate who controls such candidate committee.

5. Contributions from persons under fourteen years of age shall be considered made by the parents or guardians of such person and shall be attributed toward any contribution limits prescribed in this chapter. Where the contributor under fourteen years of age has two custodial parents or guardians, fifty percent of the contribution shall be attributed to each parent or guardian, and where such contributor has one custodial parent or guardian, all such contributions shall be attributed to the custodial parent or guardian.

6. Contributions received and expenditures made before January 1, 2017, shall be reported as a separate account and under the laws in effect at the time such contributions are received or expenditures made. Contributions received and expenditures made on or after January 1, 2017, shall be reported under the provisions of this chapter as a separate account from the other separate account described in this subsection. The account reported under the prior law shall be retained as a separate account and any remaining funds in such account may be used under this chapter.

7. Any committee that accepts or gives contributions other than those allowed shall be subject to a surcharge of one thousand dollars plus an amount equal to the contribution per nonallowable contribution, to be paid to the ethics commission and which shall be transferred to the director of revenue, upon notification of such nonallowable contribution by the ethics commission, and after the candidate has had ten business days after receipt of notice to return the contribution to the contributor. The candidate and the candidate committee treasurer or deputy treasurer owing a surcharge shall be personally liable for the payment of the surcharge or may pay such surcharge only from campaign funds existing on the date of the receipt of notice. Such surcharge shall constitute a debt to the state enforceable under, but not limited to, the provisions of chapter 143.

130.044. 1. All individuals and committees required to file disclosure reports under section 130.041 shall electronically report any contribution by any single contributor which is equal to or exceeds [five] two thousand dollars to the Missouri ethics commission within forty-eight hours of receiving the contribution.

2. Any individual currently holding office as a state representative, state senator, or any candidate for such office or such individual's campaign committee shall electronically report any contribution equal to or exceeding five hundred dollars made by any contributor to his or her campaign committee during the regular legislative session of the general assembly or any time when legislation from the regular legislative session awaits gubernatorial action, within forty-eight hours of receiving the contribution.

3. Any individual currently holding office as the governor, lieutenant governor, treasurer, attorney general, secretary of state or auditor or any candidate for such office or such person's campaign committee shall electronically report any contribution equal to or exceeding five hundred dollars made by any contributor to his or her campaign committee during the regular legislative session or any time when legislation from the regular legislative session awaits gubernatorial action, within forty-eight hours of receiving the contribution.

4. Reports required under this section shall contain the same content required under section 130.041 and shall be filed in accordance with the standards established by the commission for electronic filing and other rules the commission may deem necessary to promulgate for the effective administration of this section.

5. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2008, shall be invalid and void.

[130.044. 1. All individuals and committees required to file disclosure reports under section 130.041 shall electronically report any contribution by any single contributor which exceeds five thousand dollars to the Missouri ethics commission within forty-eight hours of receiving the contribution. Such reports shall contain the same content required under section 130.041 and shall be filed in accordance with the standards established by the commission for electronic filing and other rules the commission may deem necessary to promulgate for the effective administration of this section.

2. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028.
