FIRST REGULAR SESSION

SENATE BILL NO. 5

99TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR RICHARD.

Pre-filed December 1, 2016, and ordered printed.

0165S.01I

ADRIANE D. CROUSE, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal sections 407.025, 508.010, and 537.762, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections relating to civil actions.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 407.025, 508.010, and 537.762, RSMo, are repealed 2 and five new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 407.012, 3 407.025, 508.010, 537.761, and 537.762, to read as follows:

407.012. 1. In a civil action brought under section 407.025, absent 2 a state statute to the contrary, the courts shall be guided by the 3 policies of the Federal Trade Commission and interpretations given by 4 the Federal Trade Commission and the federal courts to Section 5(a)(1) 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 45(a)(1), as 6 amended.

2. Section 407.025 shall not apply to actions or transactions otherwise permitted, approved, or regulated by the Federal Trade Commission or any other regulatory agency acting under statutory authority of this state or the United States.

407.025. 1. Any person who purchases or leases merchandise primarily for personal, family or household purposes and thereby suffers an ascertainable loss of money or property, real or personal, as a result of the use or employment by another person of a method, act or practice declared unlawful by section 407.020, may bring a private civil action in either the circuit court of the county in which the seller or lessor resides or in which the transaction complained of took place, to recover actual damages. A person seeking to recover damages shall demonstrate that he or she acted reasonably in light of all the 10

9 circumstances and establish his or her individual damages with sufficiently definitive and objective evidence to allow the loss to be calculated with a reasonable degree of certainty. The damages shall be 11 measured by the person's out-of-pocket loss, which shall be defined as 12an amount of money equal to the difference between the amount paid 13by the consumer for the good or service and the actual market value of 14 the good or service that the consumer actually received. In order to 15recover damages under this section, each person shall be required to 16 17prove that the method, act, or practice declared unlawful by section 18 407.020 caused him or her to enter into the transaction that resulted in his or her damages. The court may, in its discretion, award punitive damages 19 20[and]. The court may, in its discretion, award to the prevailing party attorney's fees, based on the amount of time reasonably expended, and may 22provide such [equitable] injunctive relief as it deems necessary or proper to 23protect the prevailing party from the methods, acts, or practices declared unlawful by section 407.020. No action may be brought under 24

25this section to recover damages for personal injury or death. A cause 26of action under this section accrues on the date of the purchase or 27lease described in the first sentence of this section.

282. Persons entitled to bring an action pursuant to subsection 1 of this section may, if the unlawful method, act or practice has caused similar injury to 29numerous other persons, institute an action as representative or representatives 30 of a class against one or more defendants as representatives of a class, and the 3132petition shall allege such facts as will show that these persons or the named 33defendants specifically named and served with process have been fairly chosen 34 and adequately and fairly represent the whole class, to recover compensatory but not punitive damages as provided for in subsection 1 of this section. The 3536plaintiff shall be required to prove such allegations, unless all of the members of 37the class have entered their appearance, and it shall not be sufficient to prove 38 such facts by the admission or admissions of the defendants who have entered 39 their appearance. In order to recover damages in a class action under this section, each class member shall be required to prove that his or 40 her damages were proximately caused by the method, act, or practice 41 declared unlawful by section 407.020, and that the method, act, or 42practice caused the class member to enter into the transaction that 43resulted in his or her damages. The court shall not infer that damages 44 proven to have been suffered by one or more class members were 45suffered by all class members. In any action brought pursuant to this 46 section, the court may in its discretion [order, in addition to damages, injunction 47or other equitable relief and] enjoin the methods, acts, or practices 48 declared unlawful by section 407.020. The court may also determine a 49 proposed award of reasonable attorney's fees for the counsel to the 50class. Attorney's fees, if awarded, shall bear a reasonable relationship 51to the amount of the judgment. 52

53 3. An action may be maintained as a class action in a manner consistent 54 with Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Missouri rule of civil 55 procedure 52.08 to the extent such state rule is not inconsistent with the federal 56 rule if:

(1) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable;

(2) There are questions of law or fact common to the class;

59 (3) The claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the60 claims or defenses of the class; and

61 (4) The representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the 62 interests of the class; and, in addition

63 (5) The prosecution of separate action by or against individual members64 of the class would create a risk of:

65 (a) Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual 66 members of the class which would establish incompatible standards of conduct for 67 the party opposing the class; or

68 (b) Adjudications with respect to individual members of the class which 69 would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members 70 not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to 71 protect their interests; or

(6) The party opposing the class has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief with respect to the class as a whole; or

75 (7) The court finds that the questions of law or fact common to the 76 members of the class predominate over any questions affecting only individual 77 members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for the 78 fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy. The matters pertinent to the 79 findings include:

80

(a) The interest of members of the class in individually controlling the

81 prosecution or defense of separate actions;

(b) The extent and nature of any litigation concerning the controversyalready commenced by or against members of the class;

84 (c) The desirability or undesirability of concentrating the litigation of the85 claims in the particular forum;

86 (d) The difficulties likely to be encountered in the management of a class87 action.

88 4. (1) As soon as practicable after the commencement of an action brought as a class action, the court shall determine by order whether it is to be so 89 90 maintained. An order pursuant to this subdivision may be conditional, and may 91 be altered or amended before the decision on the merits. An order permitting 92a class action shall specify how the class claims and any issues 93 affecting only individual members, raised by the claims or defenses asserted in the pleadings, will be tried in a manageable, time efficient 94 95 manner.

96 (2) In any class action maintained pursuant to subdivision (7) of 97 subsection 3 of this section, the court shall direct to the members of the class the 98 best notice practicable under the circumstances, including individual notice to all 99 members who can be identified through reasonable effort. The notice shall advise 100 each member that:

101 (a) The court will exclude such member from the class if such member so102 requests by a specified date;

103 (b) The judgment, whether favorable or not, will include all members who104 do not request exclusion; and

105 (c) Any member who does request exclusion may, if such member desires,106 enter an appearance through such member's counsel.

107 (3) Prior to an entry of a judgment against a defendant in an action maintained as a class action under subsection 3 of this section, 108 the court shall require each member of the class claiming to be entitled 109 to monetary relief to submit a statement in a form prescribed by the 110 court requesting a specific dollar amount and providing information 111 112regarding the nature of his or her loss, injury, claim, or damage. No award of damages under this section shall be made without objective 113proof that the person or persons seeking damages suffered actual 114 damages. No judgment shall be entered until the trier of fact has 115determined the amount of money, if any, owed to each class member 116

117based upon his or her individual proof. The amount of judgment shall not exceed the sum of the money owed to each class member. The 118 119 judgment shall identify each member of the class and his or her 120individual monetary award. The judgment in an action maintained as a class action pursuant to subdivision (5) of subsection 3 of this section or subdivision (6) 121 122of subsection 3 of this section, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include 123and describe those whom the court finds to be members of the class. The 124judgment in an action maintained as a class action pursuant to subdivision (7) 125of subsection 3 of this section, whether or not favorable to the class, shall include 126 and specify or describe those to whom the notice provided in subdivision (2) of 127this subsection was directed, and who have requested exclusion, and whom the 128 court finds to be members of the class.

(4) When appropriate, in a case that otherwise meets the class action requirements of subsection 3 of this section, an action may be brought or maintained as a class action with respect to particular issues, or a class may be divided into subclasses and each subclass treated as a class, and the provisions of this section shall then be construed and applied accordingly.

134 5. In the conduct of actions to which this section applies, the court may135 make appropriate orders:

(1) Determining the course of proceedings or prescribing measures to prevent undue repetition or complication in the presentation of evidence or argument;

(2) Requiring, for the protection of the members of the class or otherwise for the fair conduct of the action, that notice be given in such manner as the court may direct to some or all of the members of any step in the action, or of the proposed extent of the judgment, or of the opportunity of members to signify whether they consider the representation fair and adequate, to intervene and present claims or defenses, or otherwise to come into the action;

145

(3) Imposing conditions on the representative parties or on intervenors;

(4) Requiring that the pleadings be amended to eliminate therefromallegations as to representation of absent persons, and that the action proceedaccordingly;

149 (5) Dealing with similar procedural matters.

150 6. A class action shall not be dismissed or compromised without the 151 approval of the court, and notice of the proposed dismissal or compromise shall 152 be given to all members of the class in such manner as the court directs. 1537. Upon commencement of any action brought pursuant to subsection 1 154of this section, the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall inform the clerk of the court in which such action is brought, on forms to be provided by such clerk, that the 155action is brought pursuant to this section. The clerk of the court shall forthwith 156inform the attorney general of the commencement of such action, together with 157a copy of the complaint or other initial pleading, and, upon entry of any judgment 158or decree in the action, the clerk shall mail a copy of such judgment or decree to 159160 the attorney general.

161 8. Any permanent injunction, judgment or order of the court made 162 pursuant to section 407.100 shall be prima facie evidence in an action brought 163 pursuant to this section that the respondent used or employed a method, act or 164 practice declared unlawful by section 407.020.

9. In any suit seeking relief under section 407.025 or any suit for product liability, subsection 1 of section 507.040 shall not be satisfied if the plaintiffs' claims are based on separate occurrences. Separate purchases of the same product or service and separate injuries from the same product shall be considered separate occurrences for purposes of this section.

508.010. 1. As used in this section, "principal place of residence" shall mean the county which is the main place where an individual resides in the state of Missouri. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the county of voter registration at the time of injury is the principal place of residence. There shall be only one principal place of residence.

6 2. In all actions in which there is no count alleging a tort, venue shall be 7 determined as follows:

8 (1) When the defendant is a resident of the state, either in the county 9 within which the defendant resides, or in the county within which the plaintiff 10 resides, and the defendant may be found;

11 (2) When there are several defendants, and they reside in different 12 counties, the suit may be brought in any such county;

(3) When there are several defendants, some residents and others nonresidents of the state, suit may be brought in any county in this state in which any defendant resides;

16 (4) When all the defendants are nonresidents of the state, suit may be17 brought in any county in this state.

18 3. The term "tort" shall include claims based upon improper health care, 19 under the provisions of chapter 538.

4. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in all actions in which there is any count alleging a tort and in which the plaintiff was first injured in the state of Missouri, venue shall be in the county where the plaintiff was first injured by the wrongful acts or negligent conduct alleged in the action.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in all actions in which there is any count alleging a tort and in which the plaintiff was first injured outside the state of Missouri, venue shall be determined as follows:

(1) If the defendant is a corporation, then venue shall be in any county where a defendant corporation's registered agent is located or, if the plaintiff's principal place of residence was in the state of Missouri on the date the plaintiff was first injured, then venue may be in the county of the plaintiff's principal place of residence on the date the plaintiff was first injured;

32 (2) If the defendant is an individual, then venue shall be in any county 33 of the individual defendant's principal place of residence in the state of Missouri 34 or, if the plaintiff's principal place of residence was in the state of Missouri on 35 the date the plaintiff was first injured, then venue may be in the county 36 containing the plaintiff's principal place of residence on the date the plaintiff was 37 first injured;

(3) In any case in which venue is not expressly prescribed by subdivisions (1) or (2) of this subsection, then venue shall be in the county containing the seat of state government;

41 (4) Notwithstanding subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, if the 42 plaintiff was first injured in a foreign country in connection with any railroad 43 operations therein and any defendant is a:

44 (a) Corporation that, either directly or through its subsidiaries, wholly45 owns or operates the foreign railroad; or

46 (b) Wholly owned subsidiary of a corporation that, either directly or47 through its subsidiaries, wholly owns or operates the foreign railroad;

48 then venue shall exclusively be in the county where any such defendant 49 corporation's registered agent is located, regardless of venue as to any other 50 defendant or, if the plaintiff's principal place of residence was in the state of 51 Missouri on the date the plaintiff was first injured, then venue may be in the 52 county of the plaintiff's principal place of residence on the date the plaintiff was 53 first injured.

54

6. Any action, in which any county shall be a plaintiff, may be commenced and prosecuted to final judgment in the county in which the defendant or defendants reside, or in the county suing and where the defendants, or one of them, may be found.

58 7. In all actions, process shall be issued by the court in which the action 59 is filed and process may be served in any county within the state.

60 8. In any action for defamation or for invasion of privacy, the plaintiff 61 shall be considered first injured in the county in which the defamation or 62 invasion was first published.

63 9. In all actions, venue shall be determined as of the date the plaintiff was64 first injured.

65 10. All motions to dismiss or to transfer based upon a claim of improper 66 venue shall be deemed granted if not denied within ninety days of filing of the 67 motion unless such time period is waived in writing by all parties.

68 11. In a wrongful death action, the plaintiff shall be considered first 69 injured where the decedent was first injured by the wrongful acts or negligent 70 conduct alleged in the action. In any spouse's claim for loss of consortium, the 71 plaintiff claiming consortium shall be considered first injured where the other 72 spouse was first injured by the wrongful acts or negligent conduct alleged in the 73 action.

The provisions of this section shall apply irrespective of whether thedefendant is a for-profit or a not-for-profit entity.

13. In any civil action, if all parties agree in writing to a change of venue, the court shall transfer venue to the county within the state unanimously chosen by the parties. If any parties are added to the cause of action after the date of said transfer who do not consent to said transfer then the cause of action shall be transferred to such county in which venue is appropriate under this section, based upon the amended pleadings.

82 14. A plaintiff is considered first injured where the trauma or exposure 83 occurred rather than where symptoms are first manifested.

537.761. 1. In a products liability action in which a plaintiff 2 alleges a design defect, the burden is on the plaintiff to prove by a 3 preponderance of the evidence that:

(1) There was a safer alternative design; and

5 (2) The defect was a proximate and producing cause of the 6 personal injury, property damage, or death for which the plaintiff seeks 7 recovery. 8 2. As used in this section, "safer alternative design" means a 9 product design other than the one actually used that in reasonable 10 probability:

(1) Would have prevented or significantly reduced the risk of the plaintiff's personal injury, property damage, or death without substantially impairing the product's utility; and

(2) Was economically and technologically feasible at the time the product left the control of the manufacturer or seller by the application of existing or reasonably achievable scientific knowledge.

537.762. 1. A defendant whose liability is based solely on his status as 2 a seller in the stream of commerce may be dismissed from a products liability 3 claim as provided in this section.

2. This section shall apply to any products liability claim in which another defendant, including the manufacturer, is properly before the court and from whom total recovery may be had for plaintiff's claim.

3. A defendant may move for dismissal under this section within the time for filing an answer or other responsive pleading unless permitted by the court at a later time for good cause shown. The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit which shall be made under oath and shall state that the defendant is aware of no facts or circumstances upon which a verdict might be reached against him, other than his status as a seller in the stream of commerce.

4. The parties shall have sixty days in which to conduct discovery on the issues raised in the motion and affidavit. The court for good cause shown, may extend the time for discovery, and may enter a protective order pursuant to the rules of civil procedure regarding the scope of discovery on other issues.

5. Any party may move for a hearing on a motion to dismiss under this section. If the requirements of subsections 2 and 3 of this section are met, and no party comes forward at such a hearing with evidence of facts which would render the defendant seeking dismissal under this section liable on some basis other than his status as a seller in the stream of commerce, the court shall dismiss without prejudice the claim as to that defendant.

6. [No order of dismissal under this section shall operate to divest a court of venue or jurisdiction otherwise proper at the time the action was commenced. A defendant dismissed pursuant to this section shall be considered to remain a party to such action only for such purposes.

7.] An order of dismissal under this section shall be interlocutory until

- 28 final disposition of plaintiff's claim by settlement or judgment and may be set
- 29 aside for good cause shown at anytime prior to such disposition.

Section B. If any provision of sections 407.015, 407.025, 508.010, 537.761,

- 2 $\,$ and 537.762 or the application thereof to anyone or to any circumstance is held $\,$
- 3 invalid, the remainder of those sections and the application of such provisions to
- 4 others or other circumstances shall not be affected thereby.
