Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 12.010, RSMo 1994, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 12.010, to read as follows:

12.010. The consent of the state of Missouri is given in accordance with the seventeenth clause, eighth section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States to the acquisition by the United States by purchase or grant of any land in this state acquired for the purpose of establishing and maintaining post offices, internal revenue and other government offices, hospitals, sanatoriums, fish hatcheries, and land for reforestation, recreational and agricultural uses; but land for reforestation, recreational or agricultural uses or for sovereign trust status shall only be acquired with statutory authorization of the general assembly. Nothing in this section is intended to constitute the consent of the state of Missouri to the acquisition by the United States by purchase or grant of any land in this state for use by Indian tribes. Land used exclusively for the erection of hospitals by the United States may also be acquired by condemnation.
