AN ACT

To repeal section 34.140, RSMo Supp. 1999, relating to surplus property, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the same subject.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 34.140, RSMo Supp. 1999, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 34.140, to read as follows:

34.140. 1. The commissioner of administration may require an inventory to be made when necessary of all removable equipment owned by the state.

2. The commissioner of administration shall have the power to transfer supplies from any department where they are not needed to any other department where they are needed and to direct that proper charges and credits be made on the inventories of the departments concerned.

3. The commissioner of administration may distribute surplus or unneeded supplies or property to volunteer fire protection associations, as defined in section 320.300, RSMo, to fire protection districts, to fire departments and to eligible donees, as that term is defined in connection with the federal surplus property program, in the same manner as provided for the distribution of federal surplus property. The commissioner of administration may distribute surplus or unneeded supplies or property to an organization registered with the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)3 [not for profit, public service corporation] which:

(1) Provides training to fire departments, emergency medical technicians and police officers in search and recovery techniques, water rescue, ice rescue and watercraft operation in the same manner as provided for the distribution of federal surplus property; or

(2) Provides campgrounds and services to other organizations registered with

EXPLANATION--Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

the United States Internal Revenue Service as a 501(c)3 for disabled, disadvantaged or other youth group activities. As used in this section, "campgrounds" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 436.100, RSMo.

4. The commissioner of administration may sell surplus or unneeded supplies or property which are not transferred to state agencies or distributed to eligible donees to the general public by auction, sealed bid.

5. A uniformed employee of the Missouri state highway patrol, with the approval of the superintendent, may purchase upon retirement, by reason of length of service or disability or by the member's next of kin in case of death, the service pistol, off-duty sidearm and badge carried by such member immediately prior to retirement. The purchase price for the service pistol, off-duty sidearm and badge shall be equal to the replacement cost thereof.
