

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE
NINETIETH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE
STATE OF MISSOURI
SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIRST DAY—WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 2000

The Senate was called to order at 12:00 noon by Lieutenant Governor Roger Wilson.

The Reverend Carl G. Gauck offered the following prayer:

Gracious and Heavenly Father: We come to You this day beginning another new session, eager to work and desiring Your guidance. As we approach a new Millennium, we end one of the bloodiest centuries of man's inhumanity to man. Help us to find avenues of peaceful interactions among the people of this state; guide us in passing laws that promote justice and assist those in need. And help each of us to find and walk the path of Your righteousness as we seek to serve You in this place. And we would ask that You comfort the family of Rex Adams as they begin their time of mourning. All this we ask in Your Holy Name. Amen.

Senator DePasco announced that photographers from KOLR-TV, Springfield, KSDK-TV, St. Louis, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, KRCG-TV, Associated Press and the News Tribune had been given permission to take pictures in the Senate Chamber and the Senate photographer had been given permission to take video and use flash in the Senate Chamber and the Senate Gallery today.

Senate President Pro Tem Edward E. Quick
Opening Address – January 5, 2000
Second Regular Session
90th Missouri General Assembly

Ladies and gentlemen, distinguished guests, Lt. Gov. Wilson, friends and family, and my fellow Senators.

It gives me a great deal of pleasure to welcome each of you back to the State Capitol. Today, we begin the Second Regular Session of the 90th Missouri General Assembly.

The year 2000! The new millenium!

There are those who believe that this is the last session of the old millennium. There are those who believe that this is the first session of the new millennium. Then there are those here who would try to amend either of these proposals.

Here in this chamber, I seem to recall that we spent the better part of an evening debating what day it was – or at least what day the record should reflect that we adjourned. And, of course, we succeeded, after extended debate on the matter.

That's just one of the things the Missouri Senate is all about: debating issues – often at length, often at very great length, sometimes at very, very great length. However, this is what needs to happen when there is an honest difference on what the solution to an issue should be.

Last year, for the first time in many years, and for only the third time since we became a state, this body moved the previous question. Yet, it is worth noting, that we did so to continue debate, not to limit it. Free and fair discussion has long been the trademark of the Missouri Senate. For this body, and for the citizens we serve, I hope it always will be.

As I think back on the hundreds of hours of debate that I've enjoyed listening to in this chamber, I am often reminded of how important it is for this body to laugh once in a while. It breaks the tension, keeps tempers calm, and makes the hard issues we have to decide easier to deal with. Plus, we also make some important cultural discoveries. It was here, in this very chamber, that we made the connection between water moccasins, hand fishing and modern dance. And you'll recall when the Senator from Stone and the Senator from Shannon enlightened us as to the origin of the Macarena.

I believe that this is the time that I am supposed to remind everyone of all the many past successes that we have been able to accomplish for the citizens of Missouri. This body knows very well what those issues are and how well we dealt with them. Most of us, myself included, will be stressing these accomplishments numerous times in our up-coming elections.

The Missouri Senate has earned its bragging rights.

This summer I appointed interim committees to research and hold public meetings across the state. These committees were formed to educate us on the issues that we need to deal with this session. Each committee has or will submit a report and recommendation. I will make sure that each of you receive copies.

In 2000, I would like to see the Missouri Senate take the lead and address the following issues:

- Set up a tobacco trust fund for safekeeping and let the people decide what to do with the settlement proceeds
- Health care reform including a comprehensive patient bill of rights
- Protect seniors from telemarketing fraud, elder abuse, poor living conditions and skyrocketing prescription costs
- Education issues including school violence, charter schools, and early childhood education

- Tying up any loopholes regarding meth, sexual predators and protecting our children from abuse.

Night before last as Jane and I were discussing what message I wanted to deliver to you today, I decided finally on just two very important issues: term limits and harmony.

Probably the most important issue that cannot be solved alone by this body is term limits. In the year 2002, roughly 31 out of 34 Senators will not be able to run for re-election. I think this session we need to paint lines in the Capitol similar to a hospital: We would have a blue line to the bathrooms, a green line to the committee hearing rooms and a yellow line to the chamber for the future Senators to find their way.

We have all heard “The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away”. In the past, our positions were given and taken away by the voters. Now, with term limits, no matter how well you represent your district, in two terms the citizens must choose someone to replace you. The mere fact that people will no longer have the constitutional right to vote for a person who has served eight years in this body is of great concern to our democracy and well being of the state. This concern crosses party lines. It affects us all. The citizens no longer will have the continuity, experience and knowledge their elected officials need to get things done. I believe this is an issue that each and every one of us needs to be talking about at every opportunity within our districts, to our constituents, to our respective parties and among our colleagues.

The second very important issue I want to talk about is harmony in a world of difference. We are all different and we need some harmony! Each and every one of us worked very hard to become a member of the Senate. I believe we each have the desire and the dedication to serve our constituents to the very best of our ability. If we disagree let it be an honest disagreement. We are all intelligent, caring people who with patience, hard work and a little humor can find satisfactory solutions. Let each of us have as our goal to serve in such a way that Missouri and its' citizens are better off because we were elected.

I look forward to working with each of you during the upcoming session. It really is my privilege serving as your President Pro Tem, and it is a responsibility I take very seriously. However, when I start taking things too seriously, when it gets hard to smile, I just remember that the Senator from Shannon was born on April Fools Day, and I find comfort in this evidence that there is a higher power, and that this higher power has a heck of a sense of humor.

And we should too. It will help us be our best in the days and weeks ahead.

Thank you.

President Wilson assumed the Chair.

COMMUNICATIONS

The following was received:

December 14, 1999

The Honorable Mel Carnahan
Governor of the State of Missouri
Room 216, State Capitol
Jefferson City, Missouri 65101

Dear Governor Carnahan:

It is with deep regret and after great consternation, I hereby tender my resignation as Senator for the 5th Senatorial District, State of Missouri, effective December 15, 1999. As a result of health related reasons and upon the advice of my doctors, I can no longer represent the people of my district in the manner that they expect and deserve.

It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve the citizens in our great state for the past 32 years, and it has been especially rewarding to represent my constituents in the 5th Senatorial District.

Finally, it has been a personal pleasure to serve with you and the other members of the Democratic Party in our quest to provide the quality of representation that the citizens of Missouri so aptly merit. I will miss and remember, with great fondness, the battles that we have won and loss, but always righteously fought on behalf of our constituency.

I wish you the best of luck and continued success as Governor.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ J.B. "Jet" Banks
Senator J. B. "Jet" Banks
