Gracious God, King of the Universe: Today we remember the Christian celebration of the Epiphany and the various ways You made Yourself known to people of every expression of faith on this tiny planet. You have manifested Your presence so all may know You and in so doing taught us Your will for us to follow and Your requirements to seek ways to promote justice. And we pray that this weekend finds us safe with loved ones and for those ill that Your healing power may provide healing and health once again. In Your Name we pray. Amen.

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 1010

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri Senate always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone achievements in the careers of Show-Me State professional sports figures; and

WHEREAS, Kurt Warner of the St. Louis Rams football team was the overwhelming choice for the National Football League's "Most Valuable Player" award as selected by a national panel of fifty media members of The Associated Press; and

WHEREAS, originally a Rams backup quarterback with hard-earned Arena League and NFL Europe experience, Kurt Warner rose from relative obscurity to replace free agent Trent Green who injured a knee during the first preseason game; and

WHEREAS, a player with an aggressive style, Kurt Warner led the NFL Europe league in passing in 1998 with Amsterdam after spending three years with Iowa of Arena Football; and

WHEREAS, Kurt Warner's exemplary experience in other leagues served him in good stead when the opportunity came his way to play for the St. Louis Rams and throw forty-one touchdowns this past season, a statistic which places him in the rarified company of only one other player, the great Dan Marino; and

WHEREAS, while leading the Rams to a 13-3 season, Kurt Warner completed 325 of 499 passes for 4,353 yards with only 13 interceptions, a 65.1 percent completion rate and 109.2 rating that easily led the league in the 1999 season; and

WHEREAS, Kurt Warner received thirty-three votes for MVP in sharp contrast to the eight each received by fellow teammate Marshall Faulk and Indianapolis quarterback Peyton Manning, and the one vote cast for Colts running back, Edgerrin James; and

WHEREAS, twenty-eight-year-old Kurt Warner is active off the sporting field with volunteer work for the physically challenged and with other charitable endeavors:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninetieth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar professional labors of sensational quarterback Kurt Warner and to extend our sincerest congratulations upon his selection as the NFL Most Valuable Player; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of St. Louis Rams quarterback Kurt Warner.

Senator DePasco offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri Senate wish to express their thanks to those Show-Me State organizations which assisted with the 1999 Southern Legislative Conference; and

WHEREAS, held this year in Kansas City, Missouri, the Southern Legislative Conference was hosted by the Missouri General Assembly and drew participants from all across the United States; and

WHEREAS, in addition to state legislators and others with an interest in state governance, the Southern Legislative Conference attracted many spouses and children of elected officials; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Amusement Machine Operators Association (MAMOA) donated amusement machine games for the family center which provided entertainment and an enjoyable haven for those who accompanied their spouses or parents to the conference; and

WHEREAS, MAMOA deserves to be congratulated for providing a responsible means of enjoyment for persons of all ages; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Amusement Machine Operators Association is dedicated to ensuring that amusement games provide pure clean family fun and entertainment; and

WHEREAS, descriptive labeling on the machines donated by the Missouri Amusement Machine Operators Association conformed to the "Guide to Coin-Operated Video Games" as published by the American Amusement Machine Association and the Amusement and Music Operators Association; and

WHEREAS, such labeling provides parents and other caregivers with advisory disclosure messages which assist adults in the determination of age-appropriateness for children engaged in the playing of coin-operated video games found in publicly accessible locations:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninetieth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the efforts and time donated by the Missouri Amusement Machine Operators Association to the 1999 Southern Legislative Conference and to offer this legislative body's commendation to it for assisting in making sure the event was enjoyable for all; and
