SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIFTEENTH DAY—MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2000

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Wilson in the Chair.

The Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

Galatians 5:22: "The fruit of the Spirit is...Joy."

Gracious God, help us be a people of genuine joy. The kind of joy found in the midst of hardship; a gladness in the midst of pain. Help us have the joy of knowing Your presence in times of distress and solace in time of grief. Help us to be a people of joy that is not cosmetic of a forced smile, the perfunctory glad hand or professional glad work. But help us to know the joy that permeates all of our thinking, speaking and doing and that brightens both our inner and outer life. And thank You for the joy of having a Super Bowl Championship team in our state. In Your Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.
