The Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

Philippians 4:11: "I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therefore to be content."

Gracious God: Each of us has taken different pathways to serve in this place of service, honor and distinction. Each of us has found the joy in knowing that we are here by Your choice and as we follow Your pathways we are content and we pray this day that we remain so even when moments of dissatisfaction touch our lives and we are tempted to become discontented. Bless us to know that our service whether great or small glorifies You our God. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.
