

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FIFTY-THIRD DAY—TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 2000

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Pro Tem Quick in the Chair.

The Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

E. Townley Lord asked: "How much of God's sunshine has entered your life? How much time have you spent in the radiance of his presence?"

Gracious God, as we continue our work this week we are so mindful of the draining pressures and demands that are beginning to increase around us. We need You to give us quietness and patience as we seek Your guidance and blessings in all that we do here. We recognize that the surest spiritual search is made in silence; help us to find such quietness in each day to wait upon You so that we might be refreshed for what lies ahead. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

(5) The organization conducting the raffle shall maintain records for a period of two years from the date each raffle is conducted which accurately show the gross receipts from each raffle, the uses to which those receipts have been put, the value of prizes awarded, and the names of persons to whom prizes have been awarded unless such prize is valued at less than one hundred dollars;

(6) A statement from the person responsible for managing the conduct of each raffle made available to the commission attesting that he or she has not pled guilty to or been convicted of a felony and has not pled guilty to or been convicted of any offense related to gambling;

(7) No person may participate in the management, conduct or operation of the raffle that meets the criteria set forth in subdivisions (1) through (8) of subsection 1 of section 313.035;

(8) The commission may impose a fine in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars against any organization failing to comply with the provisions of this section; and

(9) Any organization that is discovered to have conducted a raffle without a license when a license was required to have been obtained, shall pay to the commission a fine, to be determined by the commission but not to exceed three times the amount of taxes that should have been paid pursuant to subsection 4 of this section.

3. A charitable or religious organization shall only be authorized to conduct a raffle or multiple raffles with annual prizes for all such raffles conducted by the organization valued in excess of five thousand dollars if such organization applies for and receives a license from the commission. The commission shall issue the license upon clear and convincing evidence that the organization is qualified and suitable for licensure, and upon receipt of a nonrefundable application fee of fifty dollars. Such evidence shall include a copy of the document from the Internal Revenue Service which grants the applicant tax-exempt status and a federal identification number, a copy of the articles of incorporation and certificate of incorporation, if applicable, and a statement as to whether the organization has had any previous application refused, revoked or suspended and other evidence required by the commission. The application form for licensure shall contain such information and be in a form as prescribed by the commission. Licensees shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) An amount equal to at least fifty percent of the gross receipts from any raffle conducted by a charitable or religious organization whose prize exceeds fifteen thousand dollars shall be awarded as prizes, provided that prizes that are donated to the organization for use in the conduct of the raffle shall be valued at a fair market rate as determined by the commission;

(2) All licensees are required to keep the application information required by this section current. Any changes in the information submitted in the application shall be reported to the commission within thirty days. Failure to report such changes may be cause for discipline;

(3) Proceeds from the conduct of raffles shall not be used to pay for leasing or owning the premises where the raffle is conducted. Licensees shall provide to the commission, by March first of each year, a detailed statement of revenue and expenses for each raffle conducted during the previous calendar year;

(4) All revenue from the raffle, after deducting the cost of prizes and supplies, shall be devoted solely to the charitable or religious purposes for which the organization qualifies as a charitable or religious organization;

(5) Licensees shall provide additional information as reasonably requested by the commission;

(6) In addition to the license and fees required by this section, the licensee shall notify the commission of each subsequent raffle or sweepstakes event on forms provided by the commission at least ten days prior to the commencement of such event. The forms shall be accompanied by an event fee set by the commission not to exceed twenty-five dollars;

(7) Licensees shall acquire all supplies used for the conduct of the raffle from a supplier licensed by the commission;

(8) A holder of any license shall be subject to imposition of penalties, exclusion from the management, conduct or operation of charity games, suspension or revocation of any license, if applicable, or other action for any act or failure to act by himself or his agents or employees, that is injurious to the public health, safety, good order and general welfare of the people of the state of Missouri, or that would discredit or tend to discredit charitable gaming operations in the state of Missouri unless the person proves by clear and convincing evidence that he or she is not guilty of such action. The commission shall take appropriate action against any licensee or person who violates the law or the rules and regulations of the commission. Without limiting other provisions of this section, the following acts or omissions may be grounds for such discipline:

(a) Failing to comply with or make provision for compliance with the provisions of this section, the rules and regulations of the commission or any federal, state or local law or regulation;

(b) Failing to comply with any rule, order or ruling of the commission or its agents pertaining to charitable raffles or sweepstakes;

(c) Receiving or purchasing goods or services from a person or business entity who does not hold a supplier's license issued pursuant to this section;

(d) Association with, either socially or in business affairs, or employing persons of notorious or unsavory reputation or who have extensive police records, or who have failed to cooperate with any officially constituted investigatory or administrative body and would adversely affect public confidence and trust in gaming;

(e) Employing in any charity gaming operation any person known to have been found guilty of cheating or using any improper device in connection with any charity game;

(f) Use of fraud, deception, misrepresentation or bribery in securing any permit or license issued pursuant to the provisions of this section;

(g) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any fee, charge, or other compensation by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(h) Incompetence, misconduct, gross-negligence, fraud, misrepresentation or dishonesty in the performance of the functions or duties regulated by the provisions of this section.

4. A tax is hereby imposed on all organizations required to be licensed by subsection 3 of this section in the amount of two percent of the value of all prizes awarded in conjunction with all raffles, to be paid in a manner prescribed by the commission.

5. Charitable or religious organizations are hereby authorized to conduct sweepstakes without obtaining a license from the commission when such sweepstakes are held in accordance with this subsection, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission. Charitable or religious organizations conducting sweepstakes pursuant to this subsection are subject to the following restrictions:

(1) The books, paperwork, documents, rules and other materials used to conduct the sweepstakes or related to the sweepstakes shall be open to inspection by the commission at any time;

(2) The premises on which the sweepstakes are conducted shall be open to inspection by the commission at any time;

(3) Only bona fide members of the charitable or religious organization who are not paid for such services may participate in the conduct, management or operation of the sweepstakes;

(4) Sweepstakes participants may not be required to give any thing of value in order to participate and win. Charitable or religious organizations conducting sweepstakes shall inform participants, in a prominent manner, that nothing of value is required to participate and win; and

(5) The person responsible for managing the conduct of each sweepstakes shall provide to the commission a statement attesting that he or she has not pled guilty to or been convicted of a felony and has not pled guilty to or been convicted of any offense related to gambling.

6. Any person who, with intent to defraud another person, makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits any raffle ticket, sweepstakes claim or other device used in conjunction with a raffle or sweepstakes that could affect the outcome of the raffle or sweepstakes, or who has in possession any forged, spurious, or altered raffle ticket or sweepstakes claim with the intent of, or with the result of, depriving another person of valuable consideration, is guilty of a class D felony.

7. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, RSMo, that is promulgated under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to repeal or affect the validity of any rule filed or adopted prior to the effective date of this section if it fully complied with the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after the effective date of this section shall be invalid and void.

8. Any person who violates any provisions of subsection 3 of this section shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor.

Section B. Because of the immediate need to implement safeguards in the establishment and operation of raffles and sweepstakes as authorized by constitutional amendment, section 313.918 of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section 313.918 of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval."; and
