343.398. 1. No auction shall be advertised as absolute nor shall any advertisement contain the words "absolute auction" or the word "absolute" or words with similar meaning or shall any licensee offer for sale any goods at absolute auction unless:

(1) There are no liens or encumbrances on the goods, except current tax obligations, easements or restrictions of record, in favor of any person, firm or corporation other than the seller, or unless each and every holder of each and every lien and encumbrance, by execution of the auction listing contract, or otherwise furnishing to the auctioneer written evidence of a binding commitment therefor, shall have agreed to the unqualified acceptance of the highest bid for the property, without regard to the amount of the highest bid or the identity of the high bidder; or, alternatively, that a financially responsible person, firm or corporation, by execution of the auction listing contract or by commitment therefor, shall have absolutely guaranteed to the complete discharge and satisfaction of any and all liens and encumbrances immediately after the sale or at the closing, without regard to the amount of the highest bid received, or the identity of the high bidder;

(2) There is a bona fide intention at the time of the advertising and at the time of the auction sale to transfer ownership of the goods, regardless of the highest and last bid, to the high bidder, that intention existing without reliance on any agreement that any particular bid or bid level must be made or be reached, below which level the goods would not be transferred to the high bidder; and

(3) The auction listing contract contains a binding requirement that the sale be conducted without reserve, by specific inclusion of an acknowledgment by the seller that the seller or anyone acting upon behalf of the seller, shall not bid at the absolute auction or otherwise participate in the bidding process.

2. Compliance with subsection 1 of this section shall not prohibit:

(1) A secured party or other lien holder who is not the seller from bidding at an absolute auction sale, provided that such bidding does not constitute, nor is it tantamount to the direct or indirect establishment or agreement to the establishment of a reserve price on the goods by the seller or by the auctioneer, or by anyone aiding or assisting, or acting upon behalf of, the seller or the auctioneer; or

(2) Any individual party to the dissolution of any marriage, partnership or corporation from bidding as an individual entity apart from the selling entity on goods being sold at auction pursuant to that dissolution; or

(3) The inclusion of nonmisleading advertising of certain goods to be sold at "absolute auction" and the nonmisleading advertising of certain goods to be sold at auction with reserve, within the same advertisement, or for sale at the same date and place, providing that advertisement shall make clearly apparent through equal or appropriate emphasis, which goods are being sold by each method.

3. Any auction sale is, without requirement of announcement at any time, presumed to be with reserve unless the goods were in explicit terms put up at an absolute auction.

4. The provisions of sections 343.350 to 343.416 shall not prohibit any licensee from bona fide bidding on the licensee's own behalf at any auction sale, whether absolute or with reserve, provided that the licensee's option to do so shall have been disclosed, including disclosure to the seller.

5. The seller may not bid at an absolute auction, nor may anyone bid upon the seller's behalf. No licensee shall knowingly receive such a bid by or on behalf of the seller at an absolute auction.

6. Bids may be made by the seller, or upon the seller's behalf, at any auction with reserve provided that full disclosure has been made. No licensee shall knowingly receive such a bid in the absence of full disclosure.

7. There shall be no requirement at a reserve auction that the reserve be announced when it is attained.

343.401. The board shall dispense with the examination of an applicant, as provided in sections 343.350 to 343.416, and shall grant a license provided that the applicant has complied with the requirements of another state, territory of the United States or District of Columbia wherein the requirements for licensure are substantially equal to those in force in this state at the time the application of the license is filed and upon due proof that the applicant at the time of making the application holds a current license in the other state, territory of the United States or District of Columbia, and upon the payment of a fee equal to the licensing fees required to accompany an application for a renewal of a license. A licensee who is currently under disciplinary action with another auctioneering board shall not be licensed by reciprocity.

(2) The person has been finally adjudicated and found guilty, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, in a criminal prosecution under the laws of any state or of the United States for any offense reasonably related to the qualifications, functions or duties of any profession licensed or regulated pursuant to the provisions of sections 343.350 to 343.416, for any offense an essential element of which is fraud, dishonesty or an act of violence, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, whether or not sentence is imposed;
