

Journal of the Senate

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY—MONDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2001

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Maxwell in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“We cannot forget history...we will be remembered for good or for ill...we cannot escape the burden nor responsibility.” (Abraham Lincoln)

Almighty God, on this Presidents’ Day we are mindful how You have called forth leaders to take us through perilous times and how they are remembered today. Help us be mindful of our history and the effect the actions of leaders have had on their people so we may make right decisions here in the Senate. So we need Your guidance and direction for what we will say and do for that will determine how we are remembered; may it be that we have lead with wisdom and discernment. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal for Thursday, February 15, 2001, was read and approved.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Goode offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 18

WHEREAS, telecommunications services and energy services and sources are vital to the economic vitality and well-being of the state of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, attempts across the nation to deregulate telecommunications services and energy services and sources have met with both success and failure in the effort to create competitive markets and make available new services and customer choices; and

WHEREAS, the state and political subdivisions have imposed taxes, fees and other assessments on various telecommunications and energy services which vary widely based on locality and, within a locality, may vary widely due to increasingly related and competitive services, such as telephone and cable television; and

WHEREAS, the current nationwide effort to establish competition in the production, distribution and sale of energy, including electricity, natural gas and other energy sources has potential benefits and adverse effects on energy producers, distributors, retailers, customers and the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, ensuring adequate and affordable telecommunications services and energy services and sources necessitate a fair and equitable tax structure across different telecommunications and energy services and across different regions of the state; and

WHEREAS, the issue of whether governmental entities should expend public resources to compete with private telecommunications and energy entities should be explored; and

WHEREAS, a Joint Interim Committee on Telecommunications and Energy has studied the above-mentioned issues during the tenure of the Ninetieth General Assembly and recommends that a similar study committee be established to continue the study during the tenure of the Ninety-first General Assembly:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-first General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that a joint legislative committee on Telecommunications and Energy be created to be composed of seven members of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate, and seven members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and that said committee be authorized to function throughout the Ninety-first General Assembly; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee continue and expand the in-depth studies conducted by prior Joint Interim Committees on Telecommunications and Energy and make appropriate recommendations concerning financial, legal, social, taxation, environmental, technological and economic issues of telecommunications, cable television, all Internet services, including asymmetrical digital subscriber lines (ADSL) and service via cable lines, and energy services taxation, competition between governmental entities and private telecommunication entities, and any other issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee continue and expand the in-depth studies conducted by prior Joint Interim Committees on Telecommunications and Energy and make appropriate recommendations concerning financial, legal, social, taxation, environmental, technological and economic issues of deregulation and increasing competition in energy production, distribution and sale, including consideration of the effects on residential customers, small and large business customers, utility shareholders and other stakeholders, and any other issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee prepare an interim report, together with its recommendations for any legislative action it deems necessary for submission to the General Assembly prior to the commencement of the Second Regular Session of the Ninety-first General Assembly and a final report, together with its recommendations for any legislative action it deems necessary for submission to the General Assembly prior to the commencement of the First Regular Session of the Ninety-second General Assembly; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said committee may solicit any input and information necessary to fulfill its obligations from the Missouri Public Service Commission, the Department of Economic Development, the Division of Energy within the Department of Natural Resources, the Office of Public Counsel, political subdivisions of this state, telecommunications and energy service providers, energy utilities and representatives of all telecommunications and energy customer groups; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that House Research, the Committee on Legislative Research, and Senate Research shall provide such legal, research, clerical, technical and bill drafting services as the committee may require in the performance of its duties; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the actual and necessary expenses of the committee, its members and any staff personnel assigned to the committee incurred in attending meetings of the committee or any subcommittee thereof shall be paid from the Joint Contingent Fund.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Sims offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 19

WHEREAS, the Child Citizenship Act of 2000, effective February 27, 2001, will grant automatic citizenship to foreign-born children who have been adopted abroad, with stipulations that the child meet basic eligibility criteria and that one of the parents hold United States citizenship; and

WHEREAS, prior to the passage of the Child Citizenship Act, obtaining United States citizenship for foreign-born children who were adopted abroad was a complex and burdensome task that could take years to complete; and

WHEREAS, foreign-born children adopted abroad have already experienced long journeys to become treasured members of many families within Missouri and throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, given the large number of foreign-born children who have been adopted by United States parents, February 27, 2001, will be designated as a day in our nation's history when the largest number of persons become United States citizens; and

WHEREAS, parents, siblings and extended families throughout the state and the nation who have experienced the joy of adding members to their families through adoption of foreign-born children are elated at the passage of the Child Citizenship Act of 2000, which is being celebrated throughout the nation:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-First General Assembly, First Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby declare February 27, 2001, to be Child Citizenship Day; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Missouri Senate be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Director of the Department of Social Services and the Commissioner of Education and the members of the Missouri Congressional delegation.
