“My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.” (Isaiah 55:8)

Heavenly Father, You are invisible to mortal eyes but You have called us to be a holy people so that we might see you through the words and actions of Your people. In our times of need help us to remember that we are members of Your body, brought together by Your providence, so that through faith all things may be possible as we work together to do Your will and serve the people of Missouri. And Father be with our Sergeant-at-Arms as he prepares for surgery, and let Your healing power flow through his body. Amen.
