

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY—THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 2002

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Klarich in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything.” (Matthew 5:13)

O Lord, our God, we pray that You will keep us near to You and keep our faith strong and vibrant. Keep our actions towards others loving, so that we may be able to serve You through the best and the worst of what is happening in our lives. Watch over our travel this weekend and bring us safely home to those we love. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.

The Journal of the previous day was read and approved.

Photographers from the Gasconade County Republican were given permission to take pictures in the Senate Chamber today.

The following Senators were present during the day's proceedings:

RESOLUTIONS

Senator Bland offered Senate Resolution No. 1085, regarding Emanuel Cleaver, II, Kansas City, which was adopted.

Senator Bland offered Senate Resolution No. 1086, regarding the Honorable Kay Barnes, Mayor of Kansas City, which was adopted.

Senator Kenney offered Senate Resolution No. 1087, regarding Michael Thomas Jones, Blue Springs, which was adopted.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Senator Bentley offered the following concurrent resolution:

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 50

WHEREAS, the travel and tourism industry is one of the top job- and revenue-producers in Missouri, accounting for approximately 250,700 working men and women in our state and generating $12.5 billion in total economic activity; and

WHEREAS, in fiscal year 2001, the marketing and promotion activities of the Division of Tourism used a budget of $16 million to increase travel in Missouri and revenues to state and local destinations; and

WHEREAS, in conjunction and cooperation with the convention and visitors bureaus and destination markets throughout Missouri, generated tourism sales tax growth over the past 9 years amounting to $586.3 million, of which amount, $484.8 million went into General Revenue to fund critical state services to our local governments, our elderly and our children; and

WHEREAS, the current fiscal crisis facing the State of Missouri has required substantial cuts in nearly all departments and divisions of state government; and

WHEREAS, the Division of Tourism budget was reduced by 8% in Fiscal Year 2002 and the proposed Fiscal Year 2003 budget recommends a 30% reduction in the Division's budget; and

WHEREAS, in combination with the after effects of the September 11th terrorist attack and a weakened economy, Missouri's marketing efforts will be crippled, and dire consequences will be felt in the travel and tourism industry and its 250,700 workers and Missouri's tax revenue will further be detrimentally effected if the proposed budget cuts are enacted; and

WHEREAS, the Governor's proposed 30% budget reduction to the Division of Tourism is contrary to the best interest of the state and other critical state services:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-First General Assembly, Second Regular Session, the House of Representatives concurring therein, hereby urge the Governor to more equitably distribute budget reductions so that our state's ability to produce tax revenues is not crippled; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the members of the General Assembly agree to review the Governor's proposed budget cuts to the Division of Tourism in order to ensure the revenue producing responsibilities of the Division remain beneficial to the state of Missouri.

SENATE BILLS FOR PERFECTION

Senator Yeckel moved that SB 895, as amended, be called from the Informal Calendar, and again taken up for perfection, which motion prevailed.

Senator Schneider offered SA 5:

SENATE AMENDMENT NO. 5

Amend Senate Bill No. 895, Page 19, Section 362.335, Line 26, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“364.120. 1. A premium finance company shall not charge, contract for, receive, or collect any interest or discount charge other than as permitted by sections 364.100 to 364.160.

2. The interest or discount is to be computed on the balance of the premiums due, after subtracting the down payment made by the insured in accordance with the premium finance agreement, from the effective date of the insurance contract, for which the premiums are being advanced, to and including the date when the final installment of the premium finance agreement is payable.

3. The interest or discount shall be a maximum of fifteen dollars per one hundred dollars per year, which shall be computed as a fifteen percent add-on interest rate, plus an additional service charge of ten dollars per premium finance agreement which need not be refunded on cancellation or prepayment; except that, if the insurance premiums being financed are for other than personal, family or household purposes, the parties to the premium finance agreement may agree to any rate of interest which shall be stated in the premium finance agreement. The interest or discount permitted by this subsection anticipates timely repayment in consecutive monthly installments equal in amount for a period of one year. For repayment in greater or lesser periods or in unequal, irregular, or other than monthly installments, the interest or discount may be computed at an equivalent effective rate having due regard for the timely payments of installments.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of any premium finance agreement, any insured may prepay the obligation in full at any time and shall receive a refund credit[, which shall represent at least as great a proportion of the interest or discount as the sum of the periodic balances, after the month in which prepayment is made, bears to the sum of all periodic balances under the schedule of installments in the agreement; except that, if the initial term of the contract is greater than sixty-one months, the interest earned shall be computed to the date of prepayment on the basis of the rate of interest originally contracted for computed on the actual unpaid principal balances for the time actually outstanding. Where the amount of the refund credit is less than one dollar, no refund need be made]. The amount of the refund shall be calculated by the actuarial method of calculating refunds and no more interest shall be retained by the lender than is actually earned.

365.140. Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary any buyer may prepay in full, whether by payment in cash, extension or renewal, at any time before maturity the debt of any retail installment contract and on so paying the debt shall receive a refund credit thereon for the anticipation of payment. The amount of the refund shall [represent at least as great a proportion of the time price differential as the sum of the monthly time balances beginning one month after prepayment is made bears to the sum of all the monthly time balances under the schedule of payment in the contract after deducting from the refund an acquisition cost of fifteen dollars; except that, if the initial term of the contract is greater than sixty-one months, the amount of the time price differential earned shall be computed to the date of prepayment on the basis of the rate originally contracted for on the actual unpaid time balances for the time actually outstanding. Any insurance obviated by reason of prepayment shall be canceled by the holder and any refund of premiums received by the holder shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2 of section 365.080. Where the amount of credit is less than one dollar no refund need be made] be calculated by the actuarial method. The lender shall retain no more interest than is actually earned whenever a retail installment contract is prepaid. Any insurance rendered unnecessary by reason of prepayment shall be canceled by the holder and any refund of premiums received by the holder shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of subsection 2 of section 365.080.”; and

Further amend said bill, Page 27, Section 375.065, Line 67, by inserting after all of said line the following:

“385.050. 1. Any insurer may revise its schedules of premium rates from time to time and shall file the revised schedules with the director. No insurer shall issue any credit life insurance policy or credit accident and sickness insurance policy for which the premium rate exceeds that determined by the schedules of the insurer as then approved by the director.

2. Each individual policy or group certificate shall provide that in the event of termination of the insurance prior to the scheduled maturity date of the indebtedness, any refund of an amount paid by the debtor for insurance shall be paid or credited promptly to the person entitled thereto; provided, however, that no refund of less than one dollar need be made. The formula to be used in computing the refund shall be the [“sum of the digits” formula with respect to decreasing term credit life insurance and credit accident and sickness insurance, and the pro rata unearned gross premium with respect to level term credit life insurance] actuarial method of calculating refunds.

3. If a creditor requires a debtor to make any payment for credit life insurance or credit accident and sickness insurance and an individual policy or group certificate of insurance is not issued, the creditor shall immediately give written notice to the debtor and shall promptly make an appropriate credit to the account.

4. The amount charged to a debtor for any credit life or credit accident and sickness insurance shall not exceed the premiums charged by the insurer, as computed at the time the charge to the debtor is determined.

5. Nothing in sections 385.010 to 385.080 shall be construed to authorize any payments for insurance now prohibited under any statute, or rule thereunder, governing credit transactions.

408.083. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, all credit contracts with interest or time price differential calculated on an add-on basis entered into after August [13, 1988, with an initial term greater than sixty-one months] 28, 2002, the proceeds of which are used for personal, family or household purposes, shall provide that the amount of interest or time price differential earned upon prepayment in full will be computed on the basis of the rate or rate formula originally contracted for on the actual unpaid principal balances for the time actually outstanding.

408.170. [1.] If a note or loan contract providing for amount of interest, added to the principal of the loan is prepaid in full [(by cash, renewal, or refinancing) one month or more before the final installment date, the lender shall either:

(1) Recompute the amount of interest earned to the date of prepayment in full on the basis of the rate of interest originally contracted for computed on the actual unpaid principal balances for the time actually outstanding; or

(2) If the initial term of the contract is sixty-one months or less, give a refund of a portion of the amount of interest originally contracted for which shall be computed as follows: The amount of the refund shall be at least as great a proportion of such amount of interest as the sum of the full monthly balances of the contract scheduled to follow the installment date after the date of prepayment in full bears to the sum of all the monthly balances of the contract, both sums to be determined according to the payment schedule provided by the contract; except that, if prepayment in full occurs during the first installment period, interest shall be recomputed and charged only for the actual number of days elapsed. When the period before the first installment is more or less than one month, the portion of the interest earned for such period shall be determined by counting each day in such period as one-thirtieth of a month and one three hundred and sixtieth of a year.

2. No refund shall be required for any partial prepayment.

3. The word "refund" as used herein shall mean a credit or deduction from the amount of interest originally contracted for] at any time by cash, renewal or refinancing, the buyer shall receive a refund which shall be calculated by the actuarial method. The lender shall retain no more interest than is actually earned whenever a note or loan contract is prepaid.

408.320. Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail time contract to the contrary, any buyer may prepay in full at any time before maturity the debt of any retail time contract and on so paying such debt shall receive a refund credit thereof for such anticipation of payments. The amount of such refund shall [represent at least as great a proportion of the time charge as the sum of the monthly time balances, beginning one month after prepayment is made, bears to the sum of all the monthly time balances under the schedule of payments in the contract after deducting from such refund an acquisition cost of twelve dollars; except that, if the initial term of the contract is greater than sixty-one months, the amount of time charge earned shall be computed to the date of prepayment on the basis of the rate originally contracted for computed on the actual unpaid time balances for the time actually outstanding. Any insurance obviated by reason of prepayment shall be canceled by the holder and any refund of premiums received by the holder shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of subsection 5 of section 408.280. Where the amount of credit is less than one dollar no refund need be made] be calculated by the actuarial method. The lender shall retain no more interest than is actually earned whenever a retail time contract is prepaid.”;

Further amend the title and enacting clause accordingly.

Senator Schneider moved that the above amendment be adopted and requested a roll call vote be taken. He was joined in his request by Senators Gross, Jacob, Kennedy and Wiggins.
