WHEREAS, Dr. Mack Evans of Joplin, Missouri, has earned distinction during the past three decades for his spiritual leadership as the Pastor of Central Christian Center; and

WHEREAS, in 1974 Central Christian Center moved to facilities in the old Fox Theatre located in downtown Joplin, began a renovation project that has turned most of one block in the area from empty storefronts to a beautiful center of activities that attract participants from throughout the four-state region, and sparked an ongoing neighborhood renewal that promises to recapture the grandeur, for which the downtown was once heralded; and

WHEREAS, recent Central Christian Center renovations include new offices and a north theatre entrance which required an investment of some $1.7 million:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the members of the Missouri Senate, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the exceptional spiritual and organizational leadership contributed by Dr. Mack Evans to the staff and members of Central Christian Center and to convey to him and Mrs. Evans this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes as he and his congregation proudly commemorate three decades of his wonderful service and care; and
