Leadership Academy Day at The Capitol

Senator Loudon hosted thirty-seven students and their families on President's Day as the Seventh Senatorial District Leadership Academy visited Jefferson City. The day's events included a tour of the Governor's Mansion and the Supreme Court. Judge Mary Russell graciously gave of her time to share with the students how the Supreme Court works and led a question and answer session. The group was introduced in the Senate Chamber by Senator Loudon and recognized in the House of Representatives by Rep. St. Onge. This is the 10th year that Senator Loudon has hosted this educational event and for several it was their first visit to the Capitol. The group represented several schools within the Senators senatorial district.

U.S. Senator Kit Bond Makes Stop in Jeff City

Senator Bond spoke to both the House and Senate on Tuesday. In his House address, he was reminded of his time as Governor and his work to get his legislative priorities through the Assembly. He commented, “The executive proposes and the legislators dispose.” He also mentioned the Parents As Teachers program and how his family had benefited. The Senator’s son has recently been deployed to Iraq, and he talked of his bond with other military families. While delivering to the Missouri Legislature a State of Washington report, he discussed current federal legislation and how it will affect us here at home. He stressed that he and Senator Jim Talent are working hard for funding for improving Missouri roads and highways.
