Bullhorns and Bullfrogs

The Capitol was croaking at the passing of HB 33 that will make the North American Bullfrog our State Amphibian. Frogs weren't the only bull at the capitol this week. There were many bullhorns present as well. So one could say the bull was pretty thick this week.

United they Stand, Divided they Shelve

Wednesday night the Senate tackled the tough topic of Human Cloning. This bill crossed many previously strong alliances. It is hard to tell where the bill will go from here.

Senator Bartle displays a picture of Dolly, the sheep cloned. This Senator begs to put an end to the madness by Somatic Cell Nuclear Transfer

SLAPP is Ordered Perfected

Loudon's Bill for Strategic Litigation against Public Participation was ordered perfected Thursday morning. This bill will protect all citizens' right to speak on issues important to them without the fear of a costly lawsuit.
