Ryan Hager Joins State Senator John Cauthorn's Staff

JEFFERSON CITY, MO – Senator John Cauthorn, R-Mexico, welcomed Ryan Hager as an addition to his staff as a legislative intern for the 2005 regular session of the Missouri General Assembly.

Hager is currently a senior at Truman State University in Kirksville. He is majoring in Political Science with a minor in Justice Systems. Following the spring internship, he plans to attend law school in the fall.

“It will be interesting to see how the legislative process really works,” said Hager. “I am excited to work in Senator Cauthorn’s office because he fights for the issues important to rural Missourians.”

Agriculture has been a strong influence on Hager’s life and he continues to lend a hand on the family’s cattle farm. Hager was raised near Chillicothe in Livingston County.

“Working in Senator Cauthorn’s office will give me a great, once-in-a-lifetime experience. I hope that I can take what I learn and make a difference in the future.”

Senator Cauthorn represents Missouri’s 18th Senate District. Senator Cauthorn can be reached in the Capitol at (573) 751-6858
