$37 Million in Improvements to Bollinger, Cape Girardeau, Madison, Mississippi, Perry and Scott counties

SIKESTON – Senator Jason Crowell today announced approved projects that will bring more than $37 million worth of improvements to roads in Bollinger, Cape Girardeau, Madison, Mississippi, Perry and Scott counties. The Apex Paving Company of Cape Girardeau was awarded more than $3.6 million in contracts for resurfacing projects in the area.

“The total amount of improvement to Southeast Missouri is $65 million, which is significant to the many from the area that commute to work each day.”

The projects are a direct result of additional money from the recent passage of Amendment 3, which passed overwhelmingly and last Falls election.

Improvement projects by county are as follows:

County	Route	Project Description
Cape Girardeau	K	Resurface and diamond grind 6.6 miles of pavement and shoulders from Route 25 at Gordonville to Route 61 (Kingshighway) in Cape Girardeau
Cape Girardeau	61	Resurface and diamond grind 11.3 miles of pavement and shoulders from the Routes 61/25/34 intersection in Jackson to the South Kingshighway I-55 exit ramp in Cape Girardeau
