“Steadfast love belongs to you, O Lord. For you repay to all according to their work.” (Psalm 63:12)

Gracious God, we know that this is our last day of this session and there are things we still want to accomplish and work to complete; so we pray, walk with us and sustain us that we may reach the end of this day knowing we have done all things as unto You. We pray, bless our work and let it be according to Your will and the intended actions accomplish what we have worked towards this session. And bring us to that place where we may know Your peace in our mind, body, spirit and community that produces an integrated wholeness and effectiveness in our daily living. In Your Holy Name we pray. Amen.
