Sen. Frank Barnitz Welcomes Suzie Feakes to the Missouri State Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY – State Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, yesterday welcomed Suzie Feakes, of Rolla, to the Missouri State Capitol. Feakes, an eighth-grade student at Rolla Junior High School, was a guest of state Rep. Bob May, R-Rolla.

While at the Capitol, Feakes served as an honorary page in the chamber of the House of Representatives during the House's morning session. During her afternoon visit to the Senator's office, Feakes was given a special tour of the Capitol and had the opportunity to watch the Senate in action.

"Suzie's interest in politics is impressive, especially at her age," said Sen. Barnitz, who represents the 16th Senate District. "It is important for students everywhere in Missouri to take an interest in how our government operates. I am happy that Suzie was able to see both legislative bodies in action today here in Jefferson City."
