Senate Confirms Gubernatorial Appointee Sponsored by Sen. Jason Crowell

JEFFERSON CITY—Sen. Jason Crowell, R-Cape Girardeau, today announced senate confirmation of gubernatorial appointee Charles A. Juden, whom Crowell sponsored for membership on the Seismic Safety Commission. The board works with the local, state and federal government agencies to prepare Missouri for responding to a major earthquake.

“With Charles’ extensive background in public safety, he will be a valuable asset to this board and to Missouri in the event of an earthquake,” Crowell said. “Because he is a husband and a father, he understands the personal stake that Missourians have in the emergency preparedness process.”

Juden, who is from Sikeston, is certified as an instructor of several training courses in law enforcement and fire operations. He is currently the director of public safety for the city of Sikeston.
