Sen. Crowell, Rep. Tilley and Rep. Lipke Welcome Immanuel Lutheran School Students to the Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY— Sen. Jason Crowell, R-Cape Girardeau, Rep. Steven Tilley, R-Perryville, and Rep. Scott Lipke, R-Jackson, yesterday met with 30 seventh- and eighth-graders from Immanuel Lutheran School in Perryville.

“I had a great time showing the students their state government in action,” Crowell said. “Their eagerness to learn inspires me, and I enjoy visiting with the students about their thoughts and ideas.”

The students spent time with Crowell, Tilley, and Lipke. Additionally, the students toured the Capitol, visited the chamber floors, the Governor’s Mansion and the Supreme Court Building.

“It was great to visit with the students from Immanuel Lutheran,” said Tilley.

“I truly enjoyed their visit and look forward to when they return in the future,” added Lipke.
