Wishing You a Blessed Easter

This weekend marks the cornerstone of the Christian faith—the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The celebration starts tomorrow as we celebrate Good Friday, which commemorates when Jesus took the sins of the world upon himself through his death. In doing so, Jesus affirms the promise of the forgiveness of sins. When Jesus conquered death and arose from the grave three days later, He affirmed the promise of eternal life.

Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection are extraordinarily profound as they authenticate as true his claims and teachings. Equally as important, the great enemies of sin, evil and death are defeated. The resurrection shows that God has accepted Jesus' payment for our sin on the cross, that the power of evil has been decisively broken, and that our own personal resurrection from the dead is assured. If we believe in the resurrection of Jesus, our attitudes to life, death, the future, everything, become altered.

This is the true meaning of Easter, a meaning that should last beyond the one Sunday each year. It is this rebirth that we need to remember all year round. Because our Easter season coincides with Spring, it is a great time to take in all the signs of new life that are around us. This is a time of rejuvenation. And we should rejoice in our salvation that was only made possible by Our Savior.

I extend my best wishes to you this Easter as you celebrate your faith, your family and the season of growth.
