Sen. Frank Barnitz Welcomes Crawford County Farm Bureau Students

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, welcomed a group of high school students from Crawford County to the Capitol on March 30, 2007. The students were in Jefferson City for Missouri Farm Bureau’s Youth Leadership Day, which gives students a chance to learn more about the legislative issues that affect them. Those visiting included Kim Gibbs, Tyler Richter, Emily Borgman, and Cody Wallen.

“The students from Crawford County were an eager and enthusiastic group,” said Sen. Barnitz. “I find their interest in legislature rewarding, and I am pleased I go the opportunity to meet with them.”

This year was the Missouri Farm Bureau’s 13th Youth Leadership Day, and 350 students participated. The day included briefings about agriculture and leadership, visits with legislators, and tours of the Capitol.

Senator Barnitz meets with delegates from Crawford County in the Senate’s Bingham Gallery.
