Sen. Barnitz Attends Sportsmen's Caucus Benefit Shoot

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, welcomed beginners and experienced shooters to the Missouri Legislative Sportsmen's Caucus Benefit Shoot on Monday. The event was held in Jefferson City at the United Sportsman's Club.

"The weather was perfect for the event and we had a great time," said Sen. Barnitz. "Thank you to all who came out to show their support and enjoy the morning."

Sen. Barnitz and Rep. Charlie Schlottach are the co-chairs of the Missouri Legislative Sportsmen's Caucus, a bipartisan legislative organization that supports the rights of hunters and fishermen.

"Being able to come out here and enjoy what we love is something that I am dedicated to protecting," said Sen. Barnitz. "Missouri is well known for our hunting and fishing. The more people who can get out here to enjoy the outdoors, the better."

The National Assembly of Sportsmen's Caucuses has chosen Branson, Mo. for the location of the national convention this year, an event that is expected to draw over 150 people from across the nation. State sportsman caucus leadership from throughout the country will travel to Missouri in order to promote the interests of sportsmen and discuss outdoors related legislation. The event will take place at the Big Cedar Resort on Nov. 27-30.
