Sen. Frank Barnitz Greet Visitors at the Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, recently welcomed several groups of visitors from the 16th District to the state Capitol.

Guests making the trip to the Capitol ranged from school groups to individuals receiving awards. Visitors have the chance to tour the capitol, view Senate debate, and visit with Sen. Barnitz.

“I am always pleased to have visitors here in Jefferson City,” said Sen. Barnitz. “As an elected official, I enjoy visiting and getting feedback from the people back in the 16th District.”

Jenna Homeyer, a student at Salem High School, receives a resolution from Sen. Frank Barnitz. Homeyer has been named a Joanne Breckenridge Scholar for her academic accomplishments, political involvement, and participation in school and community activities.

Sen. Frank Barnitz presents a resolution to Rosalie Spencer, finalist from Rolla in the Missouri Outstanding Older Worker contest. The contest honors Missouri workers who are over 55 and work over 20 hours a week. Spencer has been working at Rolla Municipal Utilities since 1968.
