Sen. Crowell Meets with Area State Officers in 4-H and FFA

JEFFERSON CITY—Sen. Jason Crowell, R-Cape Girardeau, this week met with state officers representing both Missouri 4-H and the National FFA Organization.

Tuesday, Feb. 20 served as both the Annual 4-H Legislative Academy and FFA Legislative Day at the Missouri State Capitol. Representing Southeast Missouri for the FFA Organization was State Vice President Tracy Sample from Fredericktown and for 4-H was State Officer Derek Bruncker from Oak Ridge. Both Sample and Bruncker spent time with Crowell and shared their experiences and support of youth agriculture programs.

“4-H and FFA Programs are vital in teaching children and young adults the skills necessary to become self-directed, motivated and productive leaders in our society,” Crowell said. “I commend both Tracy and Derek for being leaders of their organizations in Southeast Missouri and representing the entire state.”
