Sen. Crowell Meets with Alzheimer's Association Representatives

JEFFERSON CITY— Sen. Crowell, R-Cape Girardeau, on March 13, 2007, welcomed to the Capitol local representatives of the Alzheimer's Association. The Alzheimer's Association provides comprehensive services to more than 110,000 Missourians and 10,000 citizens in the 27th Senatorial District.

Those visiting Senator Crowell in Jefferson City were Dolly Jewel and Shannon Kitchen of Cape Girardeau, Bill Hoover and Linda Sanders of Jackson, Allen Hall of Poplar Bluff, Jerry Jordan of Perryville, and Lisa Hicks from Sikeston.

"I appreciate those who came to Jefferson City and visited my office to advocate for the Alzheimer's Association," Crowell said. "The people involved with this association are vital to making the lives of those affected by Alzheimer's disease ones of hope and prosperity. We have over 110,000 people in Missouri with this disease, but when you factor in family members and friends that are touched you can see the broad impact this organization has."

The Missouri Coalition of Alzheimer's Associations rallied in Jefferson City on Tuesday to advocate for continued Alzheimer service grants, implementation of Alzheimer's disease assistance within the new MO HealthNet, and incentives to purchase long-term health care insurance.
