Sen. Crowell Meets with Mizzou Engineering Students from Chaffee

JEFFERSON CITY— Sen. Jason Crowell (R-Cape Girardeau) on March 14, 2007 welcomed to the Capitol two students from the 27th District who were promoting the University of Missouri. Representatives from all sectors of the University of Missouri System came to show their support for Missouri's Land Grant University to legislators.

Those visiting Senator Crowell in Jefferson City were Ryan Goetz and Katie Pfefferkorn, both of Chaffee. Ryan and Katie came to the State Capitol representing the University of Missouri College of Engineering as King and Queen candidates for the yearly E-Week activities on the Columbia campus.

"I enjoyed the opportunity to share my enthusiasm and pride in the University of Missouri as a graduate with both Ryan and Katie," Crowell said. "I commend these young Southeast Missouri natives for representing not only themselves but the University of Missouri and the College of Engineering as a whole."
