Senator Jason Crowell Welcomes St. Paul Lutheran School to State Capitol

JEFFERSON CITY – State Sen. Jason Crowell (R-Cape Girardeau) welcomed 7th graders from St. Paul Lutheran School in Jackson to the Capitol in Jefferson City on April 11, 2007.

“I enjoyed spending time with the students, and I could tell that they were having a good time visiting their state capitol,” Crowell said. “They’re at an age where issues begin affecting them more directly and that obviously helps raise their interest level.”

The students took a tour of the Missouri Highway Patrol headquarters, viewed House and Senate debate, visited with Senator Crowell, toured the Capitol and had the opportunity to visit the Governor’s Mansion. The group of students, teachers, and parents ended the day by visiting Central Dairy for ice cream.
