Sen. Yvonne Wilson Encourages College Students to Apply for Legislative Internships

JEFFERSON CITY — Senator Yvonne Wilson, D-Kansas City, today urged Missouri college students interested in learning about the legislative process firsthand to apply for an internship with her office for the 2009 legislative session.

“Senate interns are an invaluable part of our day-to-day operations,” said Sen. Wilson. “They get to experience the legislative process and see how citizens across Missouri bring their issues to the state legislature where they are debated.”

Senator Wilson’s office is now accepting resumes from prospective interns for the 2009 legislative session, which runs from Jan. 7 to May 15, 2009. Interested individuals should contact her office directly by e-mailing Yvonne.Wilson@senate.mo.gov, calling (816) 924-5467 or mailing a resume to 4609 Paseo, Suite 102, Kansas City, MO, 64110 or Room 330, State Capitol, Jefferson City, MO 65101. Intern responsibilities may include constituent services, research, assisting with drafting legislation, and a variety of other duties.

“Working as a legislative intern provides real-life insight into how our state laws are created,” said Sen. Wilson. “Regardless of the career path our interns eventually pursue, they will always be able to draw from their experience here.”
