Sen. Frank Barnitz Welcomes Legislative Shadows

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, recently welcomed two students participating in the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America Legislative Shadowing Project. The students are assigned to a legislator and get the opportunity to learn about the law-making process during their day at the Capitol.

“The FCCLA program gives high school students an opportunity to see how the legislative process works first-hand,” said Sen. Barnitz. “It’s a great program, and I was glad to participate.”

Stephen Strobel, son of Brad Strobel and Paula Sallin both of Chamois, came to Jefferson City to job shadow Sen. Barnitz. The Chamois High School student is planning to attend Missouri State University and major in music education.

Mahala Mastin, daughter of Alana and Nick Ryan of Cuba and Stanley Cain of Washington, job shadowed Rep. Jason Smith. The Cuba High School senior also took the opportunity to meet with Sen. Barnitz. She is planning to attend Maryville University and major in nursing.
