Sen. Frank Barnitz Congratulates Long-Time Senate Employees

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Frank Barnitz, D-Lake Spring, today applauded the dedication of two Senate employees from the 16th District. Clem Krieg and James Bauer were both recognized yesterday (9/10) during a ceremony in Jefferson City for their 10 years of service to the Senate.

“Without staff members like Clem and Jim, the Senate could not function as efficiently and effectively as it does,” said Sen. Barnitz. “I thank both of them for their hard work over the past 10 years.”

Clem Krieg (left) of Rich Fountain serves as a door keeper for the Senate chamber.

Jim Bauer (right) of Vienna is responsible for maintenance at the Senate.
