Sen. Dempsey Named to Workforce Investment Board

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Tom Dempsey, R-St. Charles, was named to the Missouri Workforce Investment Board today.

The Workforce Investment Board works under federal statute established by the federal Workforce Investment Act of 1998. The board serves in an advisory capacity for workforce preparation policy.

“Maintaining a skilled workforce is an important component of economic development,” Dempsey said. “As a legislator, I’ve encouraged state support of job training to companies investing in and expanding in Missouri.”

Sen. Dempsey is Vice Chair of the Senate Ways and Means and the Economic Development, Tourism, and Local Government Committees. He also serves on the Commerce, Energy, and the Environment, Rules, Joint Rules, Resolutions, and Ethics Committee as well as the Joint Committee on Missouri Health Net. Sen. Dempsey was Majority Floor Leader in the House from 2005 until his election into the Senate last year. He was also Chair of the Job Creation and Economic Development Committee in 2003 and '04.
