Sen. Griesheimer Announces New Haven Resident Appointed To State Fair Commission

JEFFERSON CITY — State Sen. John Griesheimer, R-Washington, today announced that the Senate has approved the nomination of Steve Luecker of New Haven to the State Fair Commission.

Luecker, a longtime volunteer for the Washington Town and Country fair and a former fair board member, joins the nine-member State Fair Commission, which oversees the operations of the Missouri State Fair.

“We’re pleased to have Steve Luecker serve on the State Fair Commission,” Sen. Griesheimer said. “His longtime experience in several capacities with the Washington Town and Country fair make him an ideal person for the job.”

Luecker is a sales representative and broker for RE/MAX Today in New Haven and previously worked in agriculture sales and production.
