Sen. Jack Goodman Asking for Nominations of 'Missouri Unsung Heroes'

JEFFERSON CITY — Sen. Jack Goodman, R-Mt. Vernon, is asking residents in the 29th District to submit the names of Missourians from the private sector who have achieved, accomplished or overcome something remarkable in their lives. Some of these extraordinary Missourians from throughout the state will be featured in the Missouri Senate's 2009 Calendar.

"This is a way for us to honor some of our most dedicated citizens who consistently put others before themselves, and who have, thus far, received no recognition for their selflessness" Sen. Goodman said.

The Missouri Senate is currently assembling a project to provide recognition to twelve worthy nominees in 2009. A nomination form can be found online at www.senate.mo.gov by clicking on the "Know a Hero?" link. Submissions need to be received by Sen. Goodman's office by April 30, 2008.

"I encourage anyone who knows a person or group who deserves to be recognized to submit a nomination," Sen. Goodman said. "I am looking forward to hearing about the many people who help make a difference in the 29th District."
