SENATE BILLS NOS. 840 & 857

94TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Reported from the Committee on Commerce, Energy and the Environment, February 7, 2008, with recommendation that the Senate Committee Substitute do pass.

3393S.02C

TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

AN ACT

To repeal sections 130.047, 407.1095, 407.1098, 407.1101, 407.1104, and 407.1107, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof nine new sections relating to telephone calls, with an emergency clause.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 130.047, 407.1095, 407.1098, 407.1101, 407.1104, and 407.1107, RSMo, are repealed and nine new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 130.047, 407.1095, 407.1098, 407.1101, 407.1104, 407.1107, 407.1112, 407.1113, and 407.1115 to read as follows:

130.047. Any person who is not a defined committee who makes an expenditure or expenditures aggregating five hundred dollars or more in support $\mathbf{2}$ 3 of, or opposition to, one or more candidates or in support of, or in opposition to, 4 the qualification or passage of one or more ballot measures, other than a contribution made directly to a candidate or committee, shall file a report signed $\mathbf{5}$ 6 by the person making the expenditures, or that person's authorized agent. The 7 report shall include the name and address of the person making the expenditure, the date and amount of the expenditure or expenditures, the name and address 8 9 of the payee, and a description of the nature and purpose of each expenditure. Except as otherwise required under subsection 5 of section 1011 407.1112, RSMO, such report shall be filed with the appropriate officer having 12jurisdiction over the election of the candidate or ballot measure in question as set 13forth in section 130.026 no later than fourteen days after the date of making an 14expenditure which by itself or when added to all other such expenditures during the same campaign equals five hundred dollars or more. If, after filing such 15 report, additional expenditures are made, a further report shall be filed no later 1617than fourteen days after the date of making the additional expenditures; except that, if any such expenditure is made within fourteen days prior to an election, 18 19the report shall be filed no later than forty-eight hours after the date of such expenditure. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to a person who 2021uses only the person's funds or resources to make an expenditure or expenditures in support of or in coordination or consultation with a candidate or committee; 2223provided that, any such expenditure is recorded as a contribution to such 24candidate or committee and so reported by the candidate or committee being supported by the expenditure or expenditures. 25

b. The entity is required by law or rule to develop and maintain a no-call

63 list;

64 (e) By a natural person responding to a referral, or working from his or 65 her primary residence, or a person licensed by the state of Missouri to carry out 66 a trade, occupation or profession who is setting or attempting to set an 67 appointment for actions relating to that licensed trade, occupation or profession 68 within the state or counties contiguous to the state.

407.1098. [1.] No person or entity shall make or cause to be made any telephone solicitation or automated call to [the telephone line of] any residential subscriber in this state who has given notice to the attorney general, in accordance with rules promulgated pursuant to section 407.1101 of such subscriber's objection to receiving telephone solicitations and automated calls.

[2. This section shall take effect on July 1, 2001.]

407.1101. 1. The attorney general shall establish and provide for the 2 operation of a database to compile a list of telephone numbers of residential 3 subscribers who object to receiving telephone solicitations and automated 4 calls. [The attorney general shall have such database in operation no later than 5 July 1, 2001.]

6 2. [No later than January 1, 2001,] The attorney general shall promulgate 7 rules and regulations governing the establishment of a state no-call database as 8 he or she deems necessary and appropriate to fully implement the provisions of 9 sections 407.1095 to 407.1110. The rules and regulations shall include those 10 which:

(1) Specify the methods by which each residential subscriber may give notice to the attorney general or its contractor of his or her objection to receiving such solicitations and calls or revocation of such notice. There shall be no cost to the subscriber for joining the database;

15 (2) Specify the length of time for which a notice of objection shall be16 effective and the effect of a change of telephone number on such notice;

17 (3) Specify the methods by which such objections and revocations shall be18 collected and added to the database;

(4) Specify the methods by which any person or entity desiring to make telephone solicitations or automated calls will obtain access to the database as required to avoid calling the telephone numbers of residential subscribers included in the database, including the cost assessed to that person or entity for access to the database;

24 (5) Specify such other matters relating to the database that the attorney

25 general deems desirable.

3. If the Federal Communications Commission establishes a single national database of telephone numbers of subscribers who object to receiving telephone solicitations pursuant to 47 U.S.C., Section 227(c)(3), the attorney general shall include that part of such single national database that relates to Missouri in the database established pursuant to this section.

4. Information contained in the database established pursuant to this section shall be used only for the purpose of compliance with section 407.1098 and this section or in a proceeding or action pursuant to section 407.1107. Such information shall not be considered a public record pursuant to chapter 610, RSMo.

5. In April, July, October and January of each year, the attorney general shall be encouraged to obtain subscription listings of [consumers] residential subscribers in this state who have arranged to be included on any national do-not-call list and add those [names] telephone numbers to the state do-not-call list.

6. The attorney general may utilize moneys appropriated from general revenue and moneys appropriated from the merchandising practices revolving fund established in section 407.140 for the purposes of establishing and operating the state no-call database.

457. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, 46RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated in sections 407.1095 to 47407.1110 shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, section 536.028, RSMo. This 48section and chapter 536, RSMo, are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested 49 with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the 50effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held 5152unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2000, shall be invalid and void. 53

407.1104. 1. Any person or entity who makes a telephone solicitation to 2 [the telephone line of] any residential subscriber in this state shall, at the 3 beginning of such [call] solicitation, state clearly the identity of the person or 4 entity initiating the [call] solicitation.

5 2. No person or entity who makes a telephone solicitation [to the 6 telephone line of a residential subscriber] or automated call in this state shall 7 knowingly use any method to block or otherwise circumvent [such] any

8 subscriber's use of a caller identification service.

407.1107. 1. The attorney general may initiate proceedings relating to a 2 knowing violation or threatened knowing violation of section 407.1098 or 3 407.1104. Such proceedings may include, without limitation, an injunction, a civil 4 penalty up to a maximum of five thousand dollars for each knowing violation and 5 additional relief in any court of competent jurisdiction. The attorney general may 6 issue investigative demands, issue subpoenas, administer oaths and conduct 7 hearings in the course of investigating a violation of section 407.1098 or 407.1104.

8 2. In addition to the penalties provided in subsection 1 of this section, any 9 person or entity that violates section 407.1104 shall be subject to all penalties, 10 remedies and procedures provided in sections 407.010 to 407.130. The remedies 11 available in this section are cumulative and in addition to any other remedies 12 available by law.

3. Any person who has received more than one telephone solicitation or automated call within any twelve-month period by or on behalf of the same person or entity in violation of section 407.1098 or 407.1104 may either:

16 (1) Bring an action to enjoin such violation;

17 (2) Bring an action to recover for actual monetary loss from such knowing 18 violation or to receive up to five thousand dollars in damages for each such 19 knowing violation, whichever is greater; or

20 (3) Bring both such actions.

4. It shall be a defense in any action or proceeding brought pursuant to this section that the defendant has established and implemented, with due care, reasonable practices and procedures to effectively prevent telephone solicitations or automated calls in violation of section 407.1098 or 407.1104.

25 5. No action or proceeding may be brought pursuant to this section:

26 (1) More than two years after the person bringing the action knew or27 should have known of the occurrence of the alleged violation; or

(2) More than two years after the termination of any proceeding or action arising out of the same violation or violations by the state of Missouri, whichever is later.

6. A court of this state may exercise personal jurisdiction over any nonresident or his or her executor or administrator as to an action or proceeding authorized by this section in the manner otherwise provided by law.

7. The remedies, duties, prohibitions and penalties of sections 407.1095 to [407.1104] 407.1107 are not exclusive and are in addition to all other causes 36 of action, remedies and penalties provided by law.

8. No provider of telephone caller identification service shall be held liable for violations of section 407.1098 or 407.1104 committed by other persons or entities.

9. [Section 407.1104 and this section shall take effect on July 1, 2001.] When a residential subscriber does not answer a call defined in paragraph (c) of subdivision (1) of section 407.1095, it shall not be considered a violation of section 407.1098 or 407.1104 for the automated message to be left on such residential subscriber's answering machine or voice mail message system, provided such automated message is preceded by an announcement of such message by the live operator.

407.1112. 1. Any person or entity making a political solicitation 2 to any residential subscriber in this state shall clearly state who paid 3 for the solicitation by using the words "This message is paid for by" 4 followed by the proper identification of the sponsor.

5 (1) In regard to any political solicitation paid for by a candidate, 6 as defined in section 130.011, RSMo, from the candidate's personal 7 funds, it shall be sufficient identification to state the first and last 8 name by which the candidate is known.

9 (2) In regard to any political solicitation paid for by a committee, 10 it shall be sufficient identification to state the name of the committee 11 as required to be registered by subsection 5 of section 130.021, RSMo, 12 and the name and title of the committee treasurer serving at the time 13 the solicitation is made, and the political affiliation of the committee, 14 if any.

(3) In regard to any political solicitation paid for by a corporation or other business entity, labor organization, or any other organization not defined to be a committee by subdivision (7) of section 130.011, RSMo, and not organized especially for influencing one or more elections, it shall be sufficient identification to state the name of the entity.

(4) In regard to any solicitation paid for by an individual or individuals, it shall be sufficient identification to state the name of the individual or individuals.

24 2. No person or entity shall accept for the making of a political 25 solicitation or make such solicitation until the solicitation meets the 26 requirements of this section. Such person or entity shall maintain a record of the name and address of the person or entity who purchased or requested such services and the amount paid for such services. The 29 record required by this subsection shall be kept for a period of two 30 years after the date upon which payment was received for such 31 services.

32 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 105.955 and 105.957, 33 RSMo, to the contrary, any residential subscriber who receives a 34 political solicitation in violation of this section may file a complaint 35 with the Missouri ethics commission. The Missouri ethics commission 36 shall address any complaint filed under this section in the same 37 manner as it addresses violations of subsection 8 of section 130.031, 38 RSMo.

4. Any committee making a political solicitation under the provisions of this section shall be registered with the Missouri ethics commission.

425. Any entity described in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section making an automated call for the purpose of making a political 4344solicitation, as the terms "automated call" and "political solicitation" are defined in section 407.1095 the cost of which individually or in 4546aggregate exceeds five hundred dollars, shall register with the 47secretary of state and the Missouri ethics commission prior to making any such automated political solicitation. Any such solicitation by the 4849entity shall additionally state who engaged the organization to make 50the solicitation.

407.1113. In addition to any other information provided to a 2 candidate at the time such candidate files for an elective office with the 3 secretary of state, the secretary of state shall provide a summary of the 4 provisions of section 407.1112 to the candidate.

407.1115. Any entity making a radio advertisement that is made for the purpose of promoting, advertising, or campaigning for or against a political candidate or political issue that gives out the phone number of an elected official and requests that listeners contact the official by telephone shall register with the Missouri ethics commission and shall disclose the identity of the entity or person paying for such advertisement.

Section B. Because immediate action is necessary to prevent certain 2 unwanted telephone calls prior to the next election to be held in August 2008, 3 section A of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the 4 public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an

5 emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section A of this act

6 shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.
