Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 84.010, RSMo, is repealed and five new sections

84.010. 1. In all cities of this state that now have, or may hereafter
2 attain, a population of seven hundred thousand inhabitants or over, the common 3 council or municipal assembly, as the case may be, of such cities may pass 4 ordinances for preserving order, securing property and persons from violence, 5 danger or destruction, protecting public and private property, and for promoting 6 the interests and insuring the good government of the cities; but no ordinances 7 heretofore passed, or that may hereafter be passed, by the common council or 8 municipal assembly of the cities, shall, in any manner, conflict or interfere with 9 the powers or the exercise of the powers of the boards of police commissioners of 10 the cities as created by section 84.020, nor shall the cities or any officer or agent 11 of the corporation of the cities, or the mayor thereof, in any manner impede, 12 obstruct, hinder or interfere with the boards of police or any officer, or agent or 13 servant thereof or thereunder, except that in any case of emergency imminently 14 imperiling the lives, health or safety of the inhabitants of the city, the mayor may 18 mayor until the emergency has ceased, or until the board of police commissioners 19 takes charge of such matter.

20 2. Notwithstanding any provision of subsection 1 of this section 21 or any other law to the contrary, as of August 28, 2008, any city not
