

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

FORTY-FIRST DAY—THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 2008

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

Senator Nodler in the Chair.

Reverend Carl Gauck offered the following prayer:

“I pray for knowledge and experience of divine love everywhere around me and within me...I try to see the divine love from which each person springs.” (Anne Lamott)

Loving God, as we complete our work this day and return to our loved ones and the work that is there for us, we will meet many people, several new to us; and so we pray that we may experience Your divine love in them and treat them as we would You. Open us up to Your presence around us and help us communicate that awareness to others as well. And give us knowledge that will respond to people and situations in Your caring merciful way. And Father, we pray for Doorkeeper Ken Holman, that You will touch him with Your healing power and bring him to health and wholeness.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.
