State Senator Jeff Smith Encourages Community Support of MLK Day Clean Up

JEFFERSON CITY — Senator Jeff Smith, D-St. Louis, is encouraging city of St. Louis citizens to join him for his second annual Martin Luther King, Jr., Day Clean Up set for Monday, Jan. 19 — the state holiday honoring the famed civil rights leader.

“This is a wonderful opportunity for St. Louis residents to honor the life and memory of Dr. King by joining together to do something good for our community,” Sen. Smith said.

Senator Smith invites individuals, community groups, businesses, families, friends, neighbors and organizations to meet at the corner of Martin Luther King Boulevard and Union for the cleanup activities, which begin at noon and run until 2 p.m. Gloves, trash bags and refreshments will be provided.

For more information, call Sen. Smith’s District aide Johnny Little at (314) 601-4252.
