Sen. Wright-Jones Appointed to Senate Administration Committee

JEFFERSON CITY – Sen. Robin Wright-Jones, D-St. Louis, was recently appointed to the Senate Administration Committee. The committee has oversight and complete control of all financial obligations and business affairs pertaining to the Senate, including office and seat assignments, and supervises certain designated employees, among other duties.

“As a new member of the upper chamber in the General Assembly, I am honored to be selected to serve on the Senate Administration Committee,” said Sen. Wright-Jones. “Committee work is an important part of the daily activity during the legislative session and I look forward to future committee assignments that may come my way.”

The Senate Administration Committee is made up of five members. A list of committee members and a committee schedule can be found on the Missouri Senate website by clicking on committees, then on standing committees (<http://www.senate.mo.gov/09info/com-info.htm>).
