Senator Bill Stouffer's Annual Benefit Golf Tournament Set for Friday

Yearly Fundraiser for Higginsville-Marshall Habilitation Centers

JEFFERSON CITY — State Sen. Bill Stouffer, R-Napton, will again co-host a benefit golf tournament at Indian Foothills Golf Course in Marshall to raise funds for the Higginsville-Marshall Habilitation Centers.

“This is the third year in a row Rep. Mike McGhee of Odessa and I have done this,” Sen. Stouffer said. “We see more folks come out every year and I’m glad to see the interest in the habilitation centers because they do a great job.”

Registration will start at 7:30 a.m. on Friday with a tee off set for 8 a.m. at Indian Foothills Golf Course. Entry fee is $400 per team, which includes food, green fees, cart and prizes.

“Last year, over 70 golfers raised around $16,000 for the centers,” Sen. Stouffer said. “I can’t wait to see our friends and neighbors come out and support a worthy cause. The funds go to the Parents’ Association of the Higginsville-Marshall Habilitation Centers for projects and events there.”
