

For Immediate Release: Oct. 21, 2009

MEDIA ADVISORY

Sen. David Pearce to Tour Agricultural Economic Development Sites in 31st Senatorial District

JEFFERSON CITY — Senator David Pearce, R-Warrensburg, is scheduled to tour several local agricultural economic development locations in the 31st Senatorial District on Friday, Oct. 23 with Rep. Barney Fisher, R-Richards, and University of Missouri Extension representatives Pat Miller and Wayne Prewitt to see firsthand some of the area’s agriculture-related businesses and their impact on the local economy. Tour sites include Missouri Northern Pecan Growers, Twin County Family Farms, Prairie Pride Biodiesel, Green Springs Bull Test Station and Focal Dairy.

“I am looking forward to visiting the different agricultural areas in the 31st Senatorial District,” Sen. Pearce said. “We have a diverse agricultural economy and this tour reflects our diverse agricultural interests.”

WHO: Sen. David Pearce, R-Warrensburg

WHAT: Agricultural Economic Development Tour of 31st Senatorial District

WHERE:

9:40 a.m.	Tour Missouri Northern Pecan Growers – Nevada
10:30 a.m.	Tour Twin County Family Farms – southwest of Rich Hill
11:20 a.m.	Tour Prairie Pride Biodiesel – west of Deerfield
1:20 p.m.	Tour Green Springs Bull Test Station –southwest of Nevada
2:10 p.m.	Tour Focal Dairy – south of Schell City

WHEN: Friday, Oct. 23, beginning at 9:40 a.m.

###

Contact: Matt Michelson
(573) 751-2272